Docket No. C-2018-3002804

MOTION TO STRIKE – NO. 1

AND NOW comes Diana Sabatine, a woman, as herself, a human being, and not a fictitious entity, and not an attorney or a lawyer (Complainant).

Complainant files this Motion to Strike the Exhibits of the Pennsylvania Power Company dated October 22, 2019 due to it being late. The Interim Order Denying Motion To Dismiss, Scheduling Hearing And Establishing Revised Litigation Schedule dated September 3, 2019, states: "That in addition to the terms set forth in prior orders entered in this proceeding, if any Party intends to attempt to introduce any material of any kind, including any documents or exhibits into evidence or have a witness refer to any material of any kind, document or proposed exhibit, such Party must serve three (3) copies of each such document upon the undersigned presiding officer and one (1) copy upon the opposing Party no later than the close of business on Friday October 18, 2019."

MOTION TO STRIKE – NO. 2

AND NOW comes Diana Sabatine, a woman, as herself, a human being, and not a fictitious entity, and not an attorney or a lawyer (Complainant).

Complainant files this Motion to Strike the Witnesses of the Respondent in the above captioned docket number. The witnesses are irrelevant in this hearing. They have nothing to do with the intent of the law unless they were on the floor of the house or senate. Also, they have nothing to do with the final Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission (PUC) ruling. They are non-responsive to the complaint.

Furthermore, the mandatory deployment of the smart meter is not an interpretation of Act of October 15, 2008, P. L. 1592, it is a total revision of that act. It is a maxim of law that when something is written in plain English, it does not need to be interpreted.
