Re: Alisa Stroud v. Duquesne Light Company
Docket No. C-2019-3012685

Dear Ms. Farah:

Enclosed please find a copy of a one-page document sent to this office by fax machine and received today from Ms. Stroud. There is no indication Ms. Stroud provided a copy of this document to you. I am providing a copy to you in order to avoid any ex parte communication problem. Also, I am forwarding a copy of the same correspondence to the Secretary's Bureau and ask that it be scanned into the record in this proceeding.

If Duquesne Light Company objects to the request, I ask that a written objection be received in this office by Tuesday, November 5, 2019.

The parties are reminded that in the future, if either Ms. Stroud or the utility company wish to send me any correspondence, you must send a copy of the correspondence to the other side and to the Secretary's Bureau. It is improper to send communication to the presiding officer without providing a copy to the other side.

Sincerely,

Katrina L. Dunderdale
Administrative Law Judge

Dear Judge Johnson:

My name is Alisa Stroud and I wanted to take this time to personally thank you for rescheduling the Initial Call-In Telephonic Hearing due to the death in my family. Since the hearing was rescheduled, I have accepted a new position with a new employer and as a New Hire, I have been informed of a required 90-day probationary period. This period would not permit me to participate in the Telephonic Hearing on Tuesday, November 12, 2019 at 10:00 a.m. as it would occur during work hours. I have been in the position only two weeks and am currently in training. I have a great need to reschedule this hearing to avoid jeopardizing my job during a critical probationary period. If possible, I am requesting a reschedule date that would take effect in late December or early January to avoid any disciplinary actions including termination of my employment for failure to comply with the employment agreement.

Your consideration is greatly appreciated.

Thank you.
