Application of The York Water Company - Wastewater for approval of the acquisition of the wastewater system assets of the Felton Borough at Docket No. A-2019-3013113

DISCOVERY A-23

Please revise the pro forma tariff supplement provided in the Application as Exhibit O to:

- a. Include the changes that would be required on the Title Page; Page No. 2; Page No. 3; and Page No. 4 of York Water-WW's currently effective wastewater tariff to reflect the additional service territory and rates; and
- b. Fully match the existing user charges of Felton by including the rules defined in Section 3.03 of Felton Borough Ordinance No. 2004-01, which determine the number of EDUs assigned to customers provided in the Application as Exhibit P.

RESPONDENT:

Joseph T. Hand
Chief Operating Officer

RESPONSE:

- a. A revised pro forma tariff supplement that includes changes that would be required on the Title Page; Page No. 2; Page No. 3; and Page No. 4 of York Water-WW's currently effective wastewater tariff to reflect the additional service territory and rates is attached.
- b. York Water is not incorporating Section 3.03 of Felton Borough's Ordinance No. 2004-01 into the Company's wastewater tariff. Section 3.03 sets forth Felton Borough's definition of EDU and the number of EDUs assigned to particular types of customers. Every current customer of Felton Borough is being billed for only one EDU (see Discovery A-24), and York Water will continue to charge each customer the Borough's current flat rate of $79.50 per month per EDU, until such rate may be changed in a base rate proceeding. Therefore, the wastewater charges will not change for any customer or class of customer with the transition to York Water's tariff. Moreover, as explained in the Company's Application, although York Water's definition of an EDU is not identical to Felton Borough's definition of an EDU, there is sufficient similarity that York Water believes it would be reasonable to apply its definition of EDU. Indeed, applying York Water's definition of EDU would not result in any customer being billed for multiple EDUs instead of a single EDU.
