Honorable Judge Barnes,

This is not the same account number. We have 2 meters one on the house and one on the barn. We object to this being added to the original complaint since it is a different meter, different building, and different account number.

Parties:

In response to PPL's letter regarding consolidation, I don't see any written request from Mr. and Mrs. Bengen that the Amended Complaint filed October 15, 2019, and attached to Docket No. C-2019-3009735, Bengen v. PPL Electric Utilities Corporation, be bifurcated from the Initial Complaint filed on May 2, 2019. I am not inclined to sua sponte bifurcate the complaints either. It is in the interest of judicial efficiency that the second complaint be treated as an amendment to the original as it involves the same parties, account number, and meter issue.
