Re: Heidi Fiedler v. Metropolitan Edison Company
Docket No. C-2018-3003642

Dear Secretary Chiavetta:

In accordance with the Interim Order issued by Administrative Law Judge Jeffrey A. Watson on October 10, 2019, Metropolitan Edison Company ("Met-Ed" or "Company") submits this letter as a status report in the above-referenced matter. The Company avers that while the Complainant previously provided responses to the Company's Discovery Requests, the responses were not full and complete responses. That said, the Company has opted not to pursue from Ms. Fiedler at this time any additional responses to its Discovery Requests issued on October 25, 2018.

With respect to other activity in this proceeding, the Company anticipates issuing limited discovery relative to the Amended Complaint in this proceeding by the November 29, 2019 deadline. The Company is meanwhile actively responding to the Set I interrogatories issued by the Complainant and anticipates serving its responses no later than December 6, 2019.

For purposes of scheduling an evidentiary hearing in this matter, Met-Ed offered the availability it had coordinated with the Complainant by letter report filed on November 13, 2019. Please note that the Company and its witnesses have been booked in another matter on February 7, 2020, and are therefore no longer available on that date.

Should you have any questions or concerns regarding this information, please feel free to contact me.

Very truly yours,

Tori L. Giesler
