Good afternoon,

I am responding to your inquiry regarding the envelope mailed with tracking number 9171969009350218350468. Being that a month has passed since any last scan on this, I would recommend resending the item or contacting the sending. Unfortunately I cannot say what has happened to the item, and with this much time passed it would make the item even more difficult to find if possible at all. You can enter usps.com and under "help" is "find missing mail." However, with this being a timely item, the odds of getting results in time are small. Unfortunately First Class Mail does not come with any guarantees or insurance unless purchased. Please feel free to contact me if you have any further questions.

Thank you,

Jason Homchosky
