INITIAL DECISION

Before

Special Agent

INTRODUCTION

This Initial Decision dismisses the Complaint because the Complainant failed to appear for the hearing to prosecute her Complaint.

HISTORY OF THE PROCEEDING

On September 4, 2019, Gina Galle-Riegel (Complainant) filed a Formal Complaint (Complaint) with the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission (Commission) against PPL Electric Utilities Corporation (Respondent) requesting a payment arrangement.

On October 8, 2019, the Respondent filed an Answer to the Complaint, admitting or denying the allegations in the Complaint and asking that the Commission deny the Complaint.

By Hearing Notice served on the parties on October 10, 2019, the Commission scheduled this matter for a telephonic hearing on December 11, 2019 at 10:00 a.m. and assigned the case to me. The Hearing Notice stated the following: “At the above date and time, you must call into the hearing. If you fail to do so, your case will be dismissed. You will not be called by the Special Agent.” (emphasis in the original).

A Prehearing Order, served on the parties on November 1, 2019, reminded the parties of the date and time of the hearing and addressed, inter alia, the procedures applicable to the hearing and the method by which a party could request a change of the scheduled hearing date if the date was not convenient for them. Furthermore, the Prehearing Order stated the following: “At the above date and time, you must call into the hearing. If you fail to do so, your case will be dismissed.” (emphasis in the original).

The Hearing Notice and the Prehearing Order gave the parties instructions on how to participate in the scheduled hearing. The parties were to dial a toll-free number and enter a passcode to call into the hearing to participate.

The Complainant did not call into the hearing at 10:00 a.m. on December 11, 2019. Attorney Graig M. Schultz, representing the Respondent, called in with a witness and was ready to proceed.

The hearing was delayed until 10:15 a.m., to give the Complainant additional time to call into the hearing. At 10:15 a.m., the Complainant still had not called into the hearing; therefore, the hearing began without her presence. No witnesses were presented, and no exhibits were introduced for the record. Respondent made a Motion to dismiss the Complaint for failure to prosecute. Respondent was informed that the Motion would be taken under advisement. The hearing concluded without the Complainant ever calling into the hearing to participate.

The record¹ closed on December 11, 2019, following the conclusion of the telephonic hearing. As of the date of this Decision, no communication has been made to the Office of Administrative Law Judge on the Complainant’s behalf to explain her absence from the hearing. For the reasons discussed below, the Respondent's Motion will be granted, and the Complaint will be dismissed with prejudice.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The Complainant is Gina Galle-Riegel, whose mailing address is 438 Lewis Street, Minersville, Pennsylvania.

2. The Respondent is PPL Electric Utilities Corporation.

3. By Hearing Notice served upon the parties on October 10, 2019, the Commission scheduled this matter for a telephonic hearing on December 11, 2019 at 10:00 a.m.

4. The Hearing Notice served in this matter stated the following: "At the above date and time, you must call into the hearing. If you fail to do so, your case will be dismissed. You will not be called by the Special Agent." (emphasis in the original).

5. By Prehearing Order served upon the parties on November 1, 2019, the parties were reminded of the date and time of the telephonic hearing and were provided with the method by which a party could request a continuance of the hearing date, if needed.

6. The Prehearing Order served in this matter stated the following: "At the above date and time, you must call into the hearing. If you fail to do so, your case will be dismissed." (emphasis in the original).

7. The Hearing Notice and the Prehearing Order gave the parties instructions on how to participate in the scheduled hearing. The parties were to dial a toll-free number and enter a passcode to call into the hearing to participate.

8. Neither the Hearing Notice nor the Prehearing Order served to the Complainant were returned to the Commission as being undeliverable by the postal authorities.

9. The Complainant did not call in to participate in the December 11, 2019 hearing.

DISCUSSION

Section 332(a) of the Public Utility Code provides that the party seeking relief from the Commission has the burden of proof. 66 Pa.C.S. § 332(a). To satisfy this burden, the Complainant must show that the named utility is responsible or accountable for the problem described in the Complaint. Patterson v. Bell Telephone Co. of Pa., 72 Pa. PUC 196 (1990); Feinstein v. Philadelphia Suburban Water Co., 50 Pa. PUC 300 (1976). This must be shown by a preponderance of the evidence, that is, by presenting evidence more convincing, by even the smallest amount, than that presented by the other party. Samuel J. Lansberry, Inc. v. Pa. Pub. Util. Comm'n, 578 A.2d 600 (Pa.Cmwlt. 1990), alloc. den., 602 A.2d 863 (Pa. 1992); Se-Ling Hosiery v. Margulies, 70 A.2d 854 (Pa. 1950).

If a Complainant establishes a prima facie case, the burden of going forward with the evidence shifts to the utility. If a utility does not rebut that evidence, the Complainant will prevail. If the utility rebuts the Complainant's evidence, the burden of going forward with the evidence shifts back to the Complainant, who must rebut the utility's evidence by a preponderance of the evidence. The burden of going forward with the evidence may shift from one party to another, but the burden of proof never shifts; it always remains on the Complainant. Milkie v. Pa. Pub. Util. Comm'n, 768 A.2d 1217 (Pa.Cmwlt. 2001); see also, Burleson v. Pa. Pub. Util. Comm'n, 443 A.2d 1373 (Pa.Cmwlt. 1982).

Additionally, this Commission's decision must be supported by substantial evidence in the record. 2 Pa.C.S. § 704. "Substantial evidence" is such relevant evidence that a reasonable mind might accept as adequate to support a conclusion. More is required than a mere trace of evidence or a suspicion of the existence of a fact sought to be established. Norfolk & Western Ry. Co. v. Pa. Pub. Util. Comm'n, 413 A.2d 1037 (Pa. 1980).

Administrative agencies, like the Public Utility Commission, are required to provide due process to the parties appearing before them. This requirement is satisfied when the parties are afforded notice and the opportunity to appear and be heard. Schneider v. Pa. Pub. Util. Comm'n, 479 A.2d 10 (Pa.Cmwlt. 1984).

The Complainant did not participate in the December 11, 2019 hearing. The date and time of the hearing were provided in the Hearing Notice and Prehearing Order served to the Complainant in this matter. The Notice and Order informed the Complainant that on December 11, 2019 at 10:00 a.m., she was to dial a toll-free number and enter a passcode to call into the hearing to participate. The hearing was held without the Complainant because the Complainant never called into the hearing to participate. The Notice and Order warned the Complainant that her case would be dismissed if she failed to participate in the scheduled hearing.

The Hearing Notice and Prehearing Order were sent to the Complainant by regular first-class mail. Neither document was returned to the Commission as undeliverable. Accordingly, it must be presumed that these documents, which were sent to the Complainant in the ordinary course of business, were received by her. Berkowitz v. Mayflower Securities, Inc., 455 Pa. 531, 317 A.2d 584 (1974); Meierdierck v. Miller, 394 Pa. 484, 147 A.2d 406 (1959); Samaras v. Hartwick, 698 A.2d 71 (Pa. Super. 1997); Judge v. Celina Mutual Insurance Co., 303 Pa. Super. 221, 449 A.2d 658 (1982). Therefore, the Complainant is deemed to have had sufficient notice of the day, date and time of the scheduled hearing and for whatever reason chose not to appear at the hearing to prosecute her Complaint. The Complainant made no attempt to notify the presiding officer that she did not plan to participate in the scheduled hearing.

Under these circumstances, the Complainant had ample opportunity to appear and be heard in this proceeding but chose not to do so. Once notice of a hearing and the opportunity to be heard have been provided to the parties, it is the responsibility of both parties to appear and participate in the hearing. Schneider v. Pa. Pub. Util. Comm'n, 479 A.2d 10 (Pa.Cmwlt. 1984). Therefore, the due process rights of the Complainant have been fully protected. Sentner v. Bell Tel. Co. of Pa., Docket No. F-00161106 (Opinion and Order entered October 25, 1993). The Complainant did not appear, and the hearing proceeded in her absence. Both 66 Pa.C.S.A. § 332(f) and 52 Pa.Code § 5.245(a) provide that a party who fails to be represented at a scheduled hearing shall waive the opportunity to participate in the hearing and shall not be permitted thereafter to reopen the disposition of any matter accomplished thereat.

§ 332. Procedures in general.

(f) Actions of parties and counsel.--Any party who shall fail to be represented at a scheduled conference or hearing after being duly notified thereof, shall be deemed to have waived the opportunity to participate in such conference or hearing, and shall not be permitted thereafter to reopen the disposition of any matter accomplished thereat, or to recall for further examination of witnesses who were excused, unless the presiding officer shall determine that failure to be represented was unavoidable and that the interests of the other parties and the public would not be prejudiced by permitting such reopening or further examination. . . .

66 Pa.C.S. § 332(f).

§ 5.245. Failure to appear, proceed or maintain order in proceedings.

(a) After being notified, a party who fails to be represented at a scheduled conference or hearing in a proceeding will:

(1) Be deemed to have waived the opportunity to participate in the conference or hearing.

(2) Not be permitted thereafter to reopen the disposition of a matter accomplished at the conference or hearing.

52 Pa. Code § 5.245(a).

As the party seeking relief from the Commission, the Complainant bears the burden of proof. By choosing not to participate in the hearing and proffer any evidence to support the Complaint, the Complainant failed to meet this burden.

The due process rights of the Complainant have been protected. The Complainant had notice of the scheduled hearing and failed to appear to prosecute her Complaint. Therefore, the Respondent's Motion to dismiss the Complaint is granted. Accordingly, the Complaint in this matter will be dismissed in its entirety with prejudice. El-Ayazra v. West Penn Power Company, Docket No. F-2015-2509292 (Opinion and Order entered June 30, 2016); Volgstadt v. UGI Penn Natural Gas, Inc., Docket No. F-02266429 (Opinion and Order entered September 12, 2008) and Jefferson v. UGI Utilities, Inc., Docket No. Z-00269892 (Opinion and Order entered December 26, 1995).

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. The Commission has jurisdiction over the subject matter and parties to this proceeding. 66 Pa.C.S. § 701.

2. The burden of proof in this proceeding is on the Complainant. 66 Pa.C.S. § 332(a).

3. Administrative agencies are required to provide due process to the parties appearing before them. This requirement is satisfied when the parties are afforded notice and the opportunity to appear and be heard. Schneider v. Pa. Pub. Util. Comm'n, 479 A.2d 10 (Pa.Cmwlth. 1984).

4. Documents sent to a party in the ordinary course of business and not returned to the Commission as undeliverable are presumed to be received by the party. Berkowitz v. Mayflower Securities, Inc., 455 Pa. 531, 317 A.2d 584 (1974); Meierdierck v. Miller, 394 Pa. 484, 147 A.2d 406 (1959); Samaras v. Hartwick, 698 A.2d 71 (Pa. Super. 1997); Judge v. Celina Mutual Insurance Co., 303 Pa. Super. 221, 449 A.2d 658 (1982).

5. Once notice of a hearing and the opportunity to be heard has been provided, it is the responsibility of the parties to appear and participate in the hearing. Sentner v. Bell Telephone Co. of Pennsylvania, Docket No. F-00161106 (Opinion and Order entered October 25, 1993).

6. By failing to appear at her scheduled hearing, the Complainant waived her opportunity to participate in the hearing and shall not be permitted thereafter to reopen the disposition of any matter accomplished thereat, or to recall for further examination of witnesses who were excused. 66 Pa.C.S. § 332(f); 52 Pa. Code § 5.245(a).

7. The Complainant's due process rights have been fully protected. Sentner v. Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania, Docket No. F-00161106 (Order entered October 25, 1993); 52 Pa.Code § 5.245(a).

8. By failing to appear and proffer any evidence in support of the Complaint, the Complainant has failed to meet the burden of proof. 66 Pa.C.S. § 332(a).

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED:

1. That the Motion of PPL Electric Utilities Corporation to dismiss the Complaint at Docket No. C-2019-3012965 for failure to prosecute is granted.

2. That the Complaint filed by Gina Galle-Riegel against PPL Electric Utilities Corporation at Docket No. C-2019-3012965 is hereby dismissed with prejudice.

3. That the docket at Docket No. C-2019-3012965 is marked closed.
