MOTION OF WEST PENN POWER COMPANY TO DISMISS RESPONSES TO INTERROGATORIES AND DOCUMENT REQUESTS

TO THE PENNSYLVANIA PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION:

West Penn Power Company (“West Penn” or the “Company”) by and through its attorneys, Lauren M. Lepkoski and Tori L. Giesler, and pursuant to 52 Pa. Code §§ 5.245, 5.371-5.372, hereby files this Motion to Dismiss the complaint of Jeannette and Craig Pavlick (“Complainant”) for their failure to comply with Administrative Law Judge (“ALJ”) Jeffrey A. Watson’s Orders. In support thereof, the Company avers as follows:

I. BACKGROUND

1. On June 14, 2018, the Complainants filed a Formal Complaint with the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission (“Commission”) regarding 4200 Colonial Drive, Murrysville, Pennsylvania 15668 (“Service Location”) under Account No. 100094300264 (“Account”) which was electronically served on the Company the same date.

2. On July 5, 2018, the Company filed its Answer and New Matter denying the material allegations. On the same day, the Company also filed Preliminary Objections to the Formal Complaint.

3. On July 25, 2018, the Complainants filed a reply to the Company’s Preliminary Objections.

4. On August 13, 2018, Administrative Law Judge (“ALJ”) Jeffrey A. Watson was assigned as the Presiding Officer in the above-captioned proceeding.

5. On August 14, 2018, the Complainants filed a reply to the Company’s Answer and New Matter.

6. On August 29, 2018, ALJ Watson issued an Interim Order, which denied the Company’s Preliminary Objections.

7. On September 14, 2018, in accordance with 52 Pa. Code § 5.341, the Company forwarded to the Complainants interrogatories and document requests (“Discovery Requests”) via first class mail. In its Discovery Requests, the Company sought information and documents related to the Complainants’ allegations regarding the Company’s smart meters. A full copy of the Company’s Discovery Requests is attached as Exhibit A.

8. On September 27, 2018, the Complainants mailed objections to all the Company’s Discovery Requests. The Complainants object on the grounds that: (i) the Company “likely” did not mail the Discovery Requests on the date listed on the Certificate of Service; (ii) the time provided to object and respond is “unreasonable;” (iii) the Discovery Requests are “too broad and unrelated to the installation of a potential harmful smart meter;” (iv) the Company is violating § 5.361(a)(2) and (4) as the Complainants do not believe the questions contained in the Discovery Requests are permitted and the number of questions is unreasonable given the response time demanded; and (v) the Company appears to have the “intent to not act in good faith.” A full copy of the Complainants’ Objections to the Company’s Discovery Requests is attached as Exhibit B.

9. In response to the Complainants’ objections, on October 2, 2018, the Company filed a Motion to compel the Complainants to fully and completely respond to the Discovery Requests.

10. By letter dated October 9, 2018, the Complainants submitted a response to the Company's Motion to Compel. The Complainants assert that the Discovery Requests are not related to the Formal Complaint regarding the smart meter, and that the Discovery Requests contain 110 questions and did not comply with 52 Pa. Code § 5.341(d), and that the number of questions were unreasonable and are not simple and straightforward. Complainants further alleged that the Company was in violation of 52 Pa. Code § 5.361(a)(2) and (4).

11. On October 15, 2018, an Interim Order Establishing Initial Litigation Schedule was issued which set forth the schedule for discovery, the identification of witnesses, and filing of motions in this proceeding. Relevant to this Motion, ALJ Watson issued a witness notification deadline of January 10, 2019, a discovery deadline of April 5, 2019, and a status report deadline of April 19, 2019.

12. On November 28, 2018, ALJ Watson issued an Interim Order which granted the Company's Motion to Compel and directed the Complainants to serve upon counsel for the Company, full and complete responses to all of the Discovery Requests served upon Complainants by the Company and file a certificate of service with the Commission's Secretary not later than December 14, 2018.

13. By letter dated December 11, 2018, the Complainants advised of a death in Complainants' family and requested an extension of time until January 17, 2019 to respond to the Discovery Requests propounded by the Company.

14. On January 4, 2019, ALJ Watson issued an Interim Order which granted the Complainants' request for an extension of time to respond to the Discovery Requests and directed the Complainants to serve upon counsel for the Company, full and complete responses to all of the Discovery Requests, which were the subject of the order granting the Company's Motion to Compel entered on November 28, 2018, not later than January 17, 2019.

15. On January 10, 2019, in accordance with the Interim Order Establishing a Litigation Schedule, the Company provided notice and summaries of testimony for its factual and expert witnesses.

16. By letter dated January 17, 2019, the Complainants requested a second extension of time to respond to the Discovery Requests until February 27, 2019.

17. No response to the Discovery Requests was received from Complainants in contradiction to ALJ Watson Interim Order of January 4, 2019.

18. On March 7, 2019, the Company filed a Motion to Dismiss the Formal Complaint due the Complainants' failure to respond to the Discovery Requests in contradiction to ALJ Watson's Order.

19. On April 19, 2019, in accordance with the Interim Order Establishing a Litigation Schedule, the Company submitted a status report.

20. By letter dated April 25, 2019, the Complainants submitted a Motion to Find in Favor of Complainant, Additional Comments Regarding Clarification Request and Response to West Penn Power Company Letter Dated April 19, 2019.

21. On May 2, 2019, an Interim Order Scheduling Prehearing Conference was issued which scheduled a prehearing conference for June 13, 2019.

22. On May 3, 2019, a Call In Telephonic Pre-Hearing Conference Notice was issued which scheduled a prehearing conference for June 13, 2019.

23. On May 28, 2019, the Complainants propounded discovery requests upon the Company even though the discovery deadline had passed on April 5, 2019.

24. On May 29, 2019, ALJ Watson received correspondence from the Complainants which advised, inter alia, that the Complainants would be out of town during the week of June 13, 2019. In response, that same day, ALJ Watson issued an Interim Order Rescheduling Prehearing Conference and Directing the Parties to Confer Regarding Outstanding Discovery Issues which rescheduled the prehearing conference for June 25, 2019.

25. On May 29, 2019, a Cancel/Reschedule Pre-Hearing Conference Notice was issued.

26. On May 31, 2019, the Company issued correspondence addressing the Complainants' questions and concerns regarding the Discovery Requests and re-issued the Discovery Requests.

27. On June 25, 2019, a prehearing conference was held. The Complainants and counsel for the Company appeared and participated. ALJ Watson and the parties discussed the hearing process, discovery, outstanding motions of the Complainants and the Company, and witnesses. The Complainants stated that they still did not know who their witnesses would be and reserved their right to present witnesses even though their witness list was due on January 10, 2019 pursuant to the Interim Order.

28. Also on June 25, 2019, ALJ Watson issued an Interim Order Denying Complainants' Motion to Find in Favor of Complainants Dated April 25, 2019.

29. Further on June 25, 2019, the Company received non-substantive responses from the Complainants to the Company's Discovery Requests, which were dated June 20, 2019. The responses received were incomplete at best. The Complainants stated that they were "reserving the right" to present information at trial and/or that they simply were "not prepared to answer this further at this time" and providing little or no response for Nos. 3-4, 6-7, 18-19, 21-32, 35-37, 39-

43, 46-48. Further, the Complainants responded “N/A” or “irrelevant” and provided little or no response for Nos. 2, 8-12, 33-34, 38 in contradiction to ALJ Watson’s orders. Lastly, the Complainants provided absolutely no documentation in response to the Requests for Production of Documents, Nos. 35-48, and in fact stated that the Company needed to provide them with documentation with regard to Nos. 44 and 45.

30. On June 28, 2019, due to the lack of substantive responses to the Discovery Requests issued on September 14, 2019 and re-issued on May 31, 2019, in contradiction to ALJ Watson’s Interim Order which required that full and complete responses be provided by the Complainants, the Company filed a Motion to Compel.

31. On October 1, 2019, ALJ Watson entered an Interim Order which granted the Company’s Motion to Compel, overruled the Complainants’ objections and ordered the Complainants to provide full and complete responses to the Company’s Discovery Requests not later than October 24, 2019. Further, the parties were notified that “failure to comply with this order may result in sanctions imposed upon any party failing or refusing to fully comply with any term of this order, including but not limited to the dismissal of the complaint in this proceeding.” The parties were also ordered to confer regarding a potential stipulated protective order.

32. On October 4, 2019, the Company sent to the Complainants a proposed protective order which mirrored the stipulated protective agreement previously sent to the Complainants seeking their review and requesting an opportunity to discuss.

33. By letter dated October 10, 2019, the Complainants sent a letter in response to the proposed protective order stating that they objected to “various aspects” of the proposed protective order, specifically related to the topic health records. They further status that they “may” want to sign a Stipulated Protective Agreement regarding “other confidential information” but went on to state that they “will not provide nor need to provide health information.”

34. Due to the parties’ lack of success in reaching an agreement regarding a stipulated protective order, the Company filed a Petition for Protective Order on October 17, 2019.

35. On October 24, 2019, a Protective Order was issued by ALJ Watson.

36. By letter dated October 28, 2019, the Complainants objected to the issuance of the Protective Order and stated that they wanted the same “high level of confidentiality of HIPPA.”

37. On November 13, 2019, the Company served upon the Complainants signed acknowledgments in accordance with the Protective Order.

38. On December 20, 2019, ALJ Watson issued an Interim Order which required the parties to file a status report on or before December 31, 2019. Further, ALJ Watson specifically advised that “[i]t is anticipated that a dismissal of the complaint will be considered for failure of Complainants to comply with the order entered on October 1, 2019.”

39. On December 31, 2019, in accordance with the Interim Order, the Company submitted a Status Report.

40. By letter dated December 31, 2019, in accordance with the Interim Order, the Complainants submitted a Status Report.

41. On January 8, 2020, a Call-Out Telephone Notice was issued which schedule a telephonic hearing for March 24, 2020.

42. To date, the Complainants have not provided full and complete responses to the Company’s Discovery Requests in contradiction, most recently, to ALJ Watson’s Interim Order entered on October 1, 2019.

43. Further, the Complainants have ignored ALJ Watson's Interim Order Establishing Litigation Schedule issued on October 15, 2018, requiring the exchange expert and factual witness information by January 10, 2019, as no witness information has been received from the Complainants as of the filing of this Motion.

44. The Company now files this Motion to dismiss the Formal Complaint of the Complainant due to their consistent, purposeful and blatant failures to abide by multiple Interim Orders of ALJ Watson regarding notification of their anticipated witnesses as well as failure to respond to the Company's Discovery Requests.

II. MOTION TO DISMISS

45. The Commission's regulations permit the discovery of "any matter, not privileged, which is relevant to the subject matter involved in the pending action." 52 Pa. Code § 5.321(c).

46. Generally speaking, this Commission applies a standard of relevance which is less restrictive than that required by parties to present information into the evidentiary record. It is not grounds for objection that the information sought will be inadmissible at hearing if the information sought appears reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. 52 Pa. Code § 5.321(c).

47. Discovery may be obtained regarding any matter relevant to the subject matter. Relevant evidence is evidence that tends to make an act at issue more or less probable. Moreover, evidence is relevant if it advances the inquiry in some degree and, thus, has probative value. Although the law does not furnish an absolute test of relevancy, the Pennsylvania Supreme Court follows a two-part analysis for determining relevance. In Commonwealth v. Stewart, 461 Pa. 274, 336 A.2d 282 (1975), the Court held that "[i]t must be determined first if the inference sought to be raised by the evidence bears upon a matter at issue in this case and, second, whether the evidence renders the desired inference more probable than it would be without the evidence. Id. at 284.

48. The information sought here by the Company is relatively simple and straightforward. It is directly relevant and material to the issues raised by the Complainants in their Formal Complaint. The Company is entitled to the requested information to enable it to fully investigate what information the Complainants relied on to make the specific and detailed allegations they did in their Formal Complaint. If the Complainants needed more time to answer the Company's Discovery Requests or had specific questions regarding the Company's Discovery Requests, they could have contacted the Company to request an extension or to discuss in detail.

49. The Commission's Regulations at 52 Pa. Code § 5.371 address the consequences of a participant's failure to comply with the Commission's discovery regulations. Section 5.371 provides that:

- (a) The Commission or the presiding officer may, on motion, make an appropriate order if one of the following occurs:
 - (1) A party fails to appear, answer, file sufficient answers, file objections, make a designation or otherwise respond to discovery requests, as required under this subchapter.

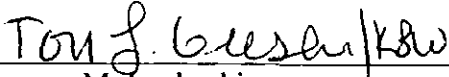

50. Further, 52 Pa. Code § 5.372 provides that the presiding officer may impose appropriate sanctions upon a party found to be found in violation of the obligations set forth in the Commission's Regulations.

51. As a result of the Complainants' failure to provide full and complete response to the Company's Discovery Requests and failure to provide notification of their anticipated witnesses, which demonstrates their lack of cooperation and willingness to participate in this proceeding as required under the Commission's regulations, the Formal Complaint in this proceeding should be dismissed in its entirety.

WHEREFORE, West Penn Power Company respectfully requests that the Commission dismiss, with prejudice, the Complaint of Jeannette and Craig Pavlick.

Respectfully submitted,
