Re: Request for Continuance

Your Honor,

I am the plaintiff in the above referenced matter which is scheduled before you for January 30, 2020.

I have only been recently notified of this date and am unable to attend due to a medical condition. (Two actually: Recovering from Broken hip – and our youngest Daughter is scheduled to be in CHOP for long awaited testing due to complications with pancreatitis 30th and 31st – I will also not have child care options for her or our son on that date if I attend)

(The only notice I've received was verbally by voicemail by PECO last week)

I have not previously requested a continuance in this case and I was cooperative when the defendant requested a continuance. So I am asking that you please grant this request as I cannot attend either physically or remotely on this date. Any time granted between the 30th and a new date will be used productively to try and work out a resolution with PECO.

Thank you for your consideration. I appreciate it very much.

Sincerely,

Krista R. McKiernan
