Dear Mr. Gramola,

I received your letter today and am writing you right away. I had uploaded an appeal letter last year + sent it to you, but obviously you didn't receive it. I would like to appeal the decision of the $500<sup>00</sup> fine based on the following information. We received the insurance renewal at the end of December for 2019. At that time, ~~to~~ I was under the impression that the appropriate forms were filed with you at the PUC. I had no idea that the forms weren't filed until it was too late. I request that you please consider this + waive my 500<sup>00</sup> fine. Thank you for your kind attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

David F White
