Alternatively, I could just attach your e-mail to the docket and treat it as a petition to withdraw complaint if that's easier and acceptable.

Judge Barnes,

I have conferred with TUS. The $500 fine that was paid and applied by SEC to this case was intended to be applied to a prior complaint docket, so the fine payment was moved to that C docket (as noted in the audit history). NO fine was paid here.

Accordingly, rather than a certificate of satisfaction, I&E will be filing (with service to R&S and Your Honor) a letter/petition to withdraw the complaint and requesting that the hearing can be cancelled and the matter closed.

Thank you.

Mike Swindler

Mr. Swindler and Ms. Royer:

I noticed that Ms. Royer's name is on my service list at C-2019-3014225, I&E v R&S Travel LLC. I am questioning whether there is a need for a hearing in this case as it appears from the audit history that the requested relief of a $500 civil penalty was already paid by R&S Travel LLC and that their name was changed. It appears TUS has tried to close the complaint. I don't know if I &E wishes to pursue its Complaint. If not, perhaps a Certificate of Satisfaction could be filed by I&E. I am the assigned ALJ, with a hearing scheduled for March 10 at 10 a.m. If you wish to pursue the Complaint, please advise as to the attorney entering an appearance so that I may add his/her name to the service list.

Thank you.
