Re: Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission, Bureau of Investigation and Enforcement v. Winola Water Company; Docket Nos. I-2018-3006498 et al.

SIXTY-DAY STATUS REPORT

Dear Deputy Chief Administrative Law Judge Cheskis:

In accordance with the Fourth Scheduling Order in the above-referenced matters, this correspondence is to provide Your Honor with a status report on negotiations toward a settlement. (Please note: A draft of this status report was previously shared with all parties, and none expressed any objection.)

On or about October 9, 2019, Pennsylvania-American Water Company (“PAWC”), the Office of Consumer Advocate (“OCA”) and the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission’s Bureau of Investigation and Enforcement (“I&E”) reached an agreement in principle for resolving these matters, subject to the negotiation of an acceptable asset purchase agreement (“APA”) between PAWC and Winola Water Company (“Winola”). Aqua Pennsylvania, Inc. (“Aqua”), did not join the agreement, nor did it oppose the agreement.

Since the previous status report was filed on February 14, 2020, PAWC has attempted to reach Winola’s counsel several times to discuss the Asset Purchase Agreement that was sent to Winola, but has been unsuccessful.

At this time, the Parties respectfully request that Your Honor hold a conference call with the Parties to determine whether a procedural schedule should be established in this matter. Given Winola’s inconsistent attendance at prior conference calls, the other Parties to this case request that the ALJ strongly encourage a representative of Winola to participate in this conference call.

Honorable Joel H. Cheskis
