EXEPTION to initial decision

The Presiding Administrative Law Judge, Jeffrey A. Watson's initial decision is void and unacceptable. Under sworn oath it is Jeffrey A. Watson's duty and obligation to support the Constitution of the United States of America, and the law. To dismiss the formal complaint with prejudice, is a clear dereliction of his duties, and a violation of the complainant's natural, unalienable, constitutionally protected Rights. The Complainant's Rights have been clearly expressed, and fully reserved.

The Presiding Administrative Law Judge has in so doing, vacated his office, and his actions or inaction causes liability under the United States Code Title 42 § 1983 – Deprivation of Rights Under Color of Law. Violation under this title allows for damages to be sought in a lawsuit in equity.

This is also a crime under Title 18, U.S.C., Section 242 which reads as follows: Whoever, under color of any law, statute, ordinance, regulation, or custom, willfully subjects any person in any State, Territory, Commonwealth, Possession, or District to the deprivation of any rights, privileges, or immunities secured or protected by the Constitution or laws of the United States, ... shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than one year, or both.

Jeffrey A. Watson is hereby demanded to carry out his duties in good faith, and immediately grant complainant all requested relief, or, resign forthwith from the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission.
