MOTION FOR A CONTINUANCE

AND NOW, this 18th day of May, 2020, comes Movant, Bryan Tate (“Complainant”), by and through his undersigned counsel, the BENNLAWFIRM, and files the within Motion for a Continuance, and in support thereof avers the following:

1. Complainant filed a Formal Complaint with the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission on or about March 2, 2020, docketed to No. C-2020-3018966.
2. The Presiding Officer, Steve Haas, subsequently issued a Call-In Telephone Hearing Notice on April 29, 2020, with the telephone hearing scheduled for Wednesday, May 27, 2020 at 10 a.m.
3. The undersigned counsel for Complainant entered their appearance in this matter on May 18, 2020.
4. The undersigned counsel are currently in the process of reviewing the file and applicable law, and communicating with the Complainant, while York County remains under a Stay-at-Home closure order issued by Pennsylvania Governor Tom Wolf, currently in effect until Friday, May 22, 2020.

5. The undersigned counsel attempted to contact counsel for the Respondent, Columbia Gas of Pennsylvania, Inc., about this Motion last week, but has received no response back.

6. Based on the foregoing, Complainant believes that he has established good cause for a continuance pursuant to 52 Pa. Code §1.15(b).

WHEREFORE, Complainant, Bryan Tate, respectfully requests that the Honorable Presiding Officer grant a continuance of the telephone hearing scheduled for May 27, 2020, as set forth in this Motion.

Respectfully submitted,
BENNLAWFIRM
