In Re: Jeannette and Craig Pavlick v. West Penn Power Company
Docket No. C-2018-3002723

Dear Judge Watson:

We have just suffered the unexpected death of Craig's father, Edward. His funeral was July 11th, and we are facing not only the family grieving but also all of the practical and legal complications of handling the estate. This is all being exacerbated by the Covid 19 emergency that results in slow downs and closures in all areas of our lives.

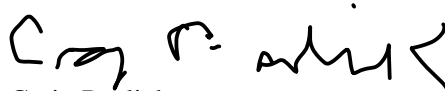

We are still caring for two other elderly parents and are suffering many other hardships due to Covid 19, including work and school closures and displacement.

These circumstances are out of our control and we make this motion for an extension of at least ninety days for our hearing.

Sincerely,

Jeannette Pavlick

Craig Pavlick
