Office of A. L. J.
Public Utility Commission

In discussion with a representative in the office of Chief Administrative Law Judge Allison K. Turner, the following determination was made regarding the attached memorandum of transmittal and 13-page Recommended Decision.

The representative indicated that although she did not know how the Upper Delaware was identified as the recipient of further Orders and Proceedings regarding the above-mentioned decision, we will continue to be the recipient until a change is accomplished. No other parties will be identified to receive the material.

When asked whether it would be possible for Steamtown to 'reply' and/or 'except', whether or not they have been identified as a recipient of the material, she suggested that Steamtown prepare their response and request an address change.

In the meantime, any materials which should come to this office will be forwarded or faxed to Superintendent Latscher's office with a follow-up call to his secretary, until such time as a correction can be made in the office of the Public Utilities Commission's Chief Administrative Law Judge (by Steamtown's staff). I have forwarded a copy of this memorandum to Judge Turner's office.

Regarding my contacts, Judge Turner's office phone number is 717-787-1191; Judge Lovenwirth's office phone number is 717-963-4818.

Superintendent Latscher, I may be reached at 717-729-8251, should you have any questions.

This is an official request for an address change to the following:
