Obenski Response to SPLP Motion for Partial Summary Judgment on Consequence Without Probability and
Obenski Response to SPLP Motion for Partial Summary Judgment on Corrosion
Control and Cathodic Protection

Honorable Judge Barnes,

Please accept this correspondence as a response to Sunoco's Motion for Partial Summary Judgments regarding Consequence Without Probability as well as SPLP's Motion for Partial Summary Judgements regarding Corrosion Control and Cathodic Protection.

Sunoco moves for summary judgments in the above matters without allowing full due process to the rest of the parties. As far as I am aware, discovery is still open in the case. Construction of the Mariner East project has continued, uninterrupted, despite a delay in PUC proceedings, and as a result, damages and violations to our community have continued to accrue.

The testimony provided so far in these proceedings, especially at the expert testimony level, deserves full consideration before the court. Complainants also deserve a full opportunity to consider the evidence and testimony submitted on behalf of other aligned parties, and provide cross and friendly cross examination at the upcoming hearing.

I am in full support of the arguments others have filed regarding the basis for denying these motions and allowing the hearing to proceed as scheduled. As such, I respectfully request Your Honor deny these motions in their entirety and allow us the opportunity to participate in the upcoming hearing.

Respectfully submitted,

Laura Obenski, pro se
