Ms. Reph-Mack and Attorney Schultz:

This morning around 9:50 a.m. I received an email from a legal assistant indicating that Ms. Reph-Mack would be unable to call into the hearing today as she was “called back into the office today i am not able to call.”, as she forgot about the hearing until a reminder notified her of the 10:00 a.m. hearing. In the email Ms. Reph-Mack inquired if anything could be done— I treated Ms. Reph-Mack’s email as a continuance request.

The hearing was held in Ms. Reph-Mack’s absence. During the hearing I informed Respondent of Complainant’s continuance request and ascertained the position of the Company. Respondent objected to the continuance request. Due to the late nature of the continuance request and with objection from Respondent, the request was denied at the hearing.

However, Ms. Reph-Mack, I am going to give you five (5) days from today to submit in writing a document evidencing the reason for your absence and why your absence was unavoidable. Please send the documentation to myself and Attorney Schultz via the email addresses contained within this email by next Monday, June 15, 2020.
