Re: John Kline v. PPL Electric Utilities Corporation
Docket No. C-2017-2621072

Dear Secretary, Chiavetta:

This letter is to make the PUC aware of intent to appeal the opinion and order for docket no. C-2017-2621072 dated October 8, 2020. Although I am undecided if I am going to file a petition for reconsideration with the PUC or an appeal to the Commonwealth Court, in either case they will be filed in accordance with the time frame allowed by the PUC, 15 days for petition for reconsideration or 30 days for an appeal to the Pa Commonwealth court.

In addition, I respectfully asked Devin Ryan - Council for PP&L Electric Utilities Corporation, via email, that PPL refrain from installing the smart meter until the appeal/reconsideration process is completed. I am waiting for a final reply.

Although there will be several reasons for the appeal/reconsideration I will base it in part on the ruling made today by the Commonwealth court in case numbers - No. 492 C.D. 2019, No. 606 C.D. 2019 and No. 607 C.D. 2019. The court concluded in part that:

2. The PUC's conclusion that it lacks authority to accommodate Consumers' desire to avoid radiofrequency (RF) emissions from smart meters is REVERSED. This matter is REMANDED to the PUC for consideration of Consumers' requests for accommodations and determinations of what, if any, accommodations are appropriate for each individual Consumer.

I will also be filing a stay Pending Action on Petition for Review pursuant to Pennsylvania Code Title 210 – Chapter 17 Rule 1781 - Stay Pending Action on Petition for Review or Petition for Specialized Review, and Section 5.572 of the regulations of the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission (“Commission”), 52 Pa. Code §§ 5.572, and Pa. R.A.P. 1781.

Respectfully Submitted,

John Kline
