Docket No. C-2020-3022451

Rosemary Chiavetta, Secretary
Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission
400 North Street, 2nd Floor
Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, 17120

Dear Ms. Chiavetta,

Our letter is in response to the two findings of Officers Kepping and Ebbert on September 29, 2020.

I did indeed not properly keep up to date the criminal history of one driver and the medical card of another.

In the case of the criminal history, please note that I did complete a criminal history report the same day as the visit by the two officers. I have enclosed a copy of his report.

In the case of the medical card, the driver has not been and will not be assigned to operate vehicles with a capacity of more than 8 people.

We would appreciate if you would please take into consideration our relatively clean operating history that we have had over the past 27 years which we have been in business and the actions which we have taken to rectify violations.

Thank you for your considerations,

Mark T Serafin

Notice to employers operating in California: California law requires the following notices when obtaining a pre-employment screening report. This report is only provided on the condition that an employer subject to California law agrees to abide by these conditions. Furthermore, by requesting a screening report, an employer certifies compliance with California Civil Code Section 1786.16.

- 1. The report does not guarantee the accuracy or truthfulness of the information as to the subject of the investigation, but only that it is accurately copied from public records. Evidence of identity theft may or may not be identified from this report.
- 2. The recipient of this report shall give a copy of this report to the subject of the report.
- 3. Failure to provide a copy of the report as required by law may expose you to liability as specified in Section 1786.50. Section 1786.50 provides for fines and damages in the event a consumer is harmed by an employer not complying with this section. Section 1786.16 refers to certain requirements already in existence, such as obtaining releases.

No criminal or sex offender records found for this individual.
