Operational/Managerial Expertise

Anwar Rohan – CEO

Mr. Rohan is a ten-year veteran of the retail energy industry. Prior to joining at Powervine, he served in senior roles at several retail energy providers including Glacial Energy, Star Energy Partners and Griddy. His areas of expertise include risk management, product structuring, procurement/pricing and retail operations management. Mr. Rohan has lead market expansion efforts at each company he has worked for and has gained experience in all deregulated US ISO/RTOs and natural gas utilities. His vision is to bring about consumer focused strategies that leverage technology, the growth of renewable energy generation and transparency to the market and to provide the highest level of value and integrity through his company's products and services.

Emily Cipes - COO

Ms. Cipes has five years of experience building and managing retail electricity suppliers in PJM and ERCOT. Prior to joining Powervine Energy, she served as VP of Operations at Star Energy Partners and Griddy Energy. Her areas of expertise include compliance, customer service, market expansion and revenue generation. Ms. Cipes has proven success leading customer growth and market expansion initiatives with attention to compliance and team management. Her driver in the industry is to leverage technology to bring to market renewable energy products with a focus on customer centricity and proven value. Prior to her time in the energy industry, Ms. Cipes was a transactional real estate lawyer specializing in JV financing and commercial acquisitions.
