

Robert J. Jones

v.

PPL Electric Utilities Corp.

PA PUC F-2020-3021737

EXCEPTIONS of Robert J. Jones, Complainant

Secretary of the Commission:

Regarding the continued hearing, I just recently received an email from PUC with initial decision of dismissal of my complaint, stating I was absent from the continued hearing.

1. I had never received any notice of the date for the continued hearing from PUC by email or mail. I do check daily all email inboxes including junk box. For the initially set hearing I had received from the PUC both an emailed and mailed notice for the hearing, which was then postponed at the request of the defendant.

For the continued hearing date, I even had inquired the Defendant attorney's office a couple weeks ago about a date, and the assistant, Kristin, looked up the docket and told me there still was no listed date yet.

I had gotten an email from the defendant indicating an attached second copy of the exhibits, followed by a second hard copy of exhibits by mail, which I didn't open since I already had the digital and hard copies.

I respectfully petition that the initial decision to dismiss be vacated and the continued hearing process proceed as expected.
