C-2020-3022816 - DIANE FISKE v. PHILADELPHIA GAS WORKS

47 W. Highland Avenue
Philadelphia, PA 19118

re: PGW case request for postponing hearing.

Dear Mrs. Maguire:

Thank you for your guidance. I really don't understand the procedures of the PUC hearings, which is why I need a lawyer. I would like to request a continuance to April when I understand my attorney, Mr. Morris, who was the lawyer at my PUC hearing a few years ago, would be available.

Since he was the attorney at the original case, he would understand the background and would not charge for reviewing documents.

The present case rests upon my missing the payment by a day and having the PGW say we go back to the original sum.

The original sum was accrued by my former landlord lying to his tenants that utilities were included in the rent. I have whittled off most of the original debt of $6,000 to about $1,000. Please inform me of the next step.

I would appreciate having this continued to April so my lawyer can participate.

Thank you.

Diane M. Fiske

I include your memo and hope I got it right. I am unaware how one signs an online memo. My machinery at home is very rudimentary. I hope this is ok and I will be advised of the next step. As a reminder a hearing is scheduled in the above-referenced case on March 23, 2021, at 10:00 a.m. For your convenience I have attached the 12/23/2020 Hearing Notice and the 1/27/2021 Prehearing Order, if either party would like to request a continuance, please do so as instructed in the Prehearing Order. Of note, the continuance request must be in writing, stating the reason for the continuance request; and must include the position of the other party (if available). This writing should be sent as an attachment to an email, so it can be filed in the Commission's case management system.
