Question 3:

Facilities are my own home. All records are kept within a locked filing cabinet. All money and important documents are kept in a fire and waterproof safe. All records are kept within the locked filing cabinet. Customer requests will be received via text, call and Facebook messages. The requests will be fulfilled by calling my independent contractors that are hired, if the contractor says no then I will fulfill the request of the customer.

Question 4:

Answer to A

Independent Contractors will have a criminal background done (PATCH), FBI Clearances, Driving Record Check, and Child Abuse Clearances. If any irregularities, I will question them on those irregularities. I will then base my decision, of hiring them as an independent contractor, based on all the information and their answers to questions.

Answer to C

I will be a test ride for them. I will ask question of what they would do in situations of a disgruntled passenger and other various scenarios.

Answer to E

Policy of drugs and alcohol will be there will be zero tolerance. If they're visibly intoxicated, they will be sent home. If they show up to work visibly intoxicated again, they will be immediately terminated as an independent contractor. If they come to work high or clearly on drugs that are not prescribed, then they will be immediately terminated.

Vehicle Safety Program

The vehicle will have normal oil changes as needed. Any other problems will be taken care at its earliest convenience or immediately depending on the severity of the problem. A rental will be received so that the vehicle can be repaired.

The vehicle will be used as my personal and business vehicle and must be maintained for personal use as well. It will be up to code as long it is on the road.
