

(b) Any person violating any of the provisions of this article shall become liable to the City of York for any expenses, loss or damage occasioned by the City of York by reason of such violation.

(c) For the violation of any of the provisions of this article, the City of York shall have the right and power to disconnect all connecting pipe lines conveying sewage or industrial wastes from the buildings of the users of the City's sewers to the City's sewer system from such sewer system. The cost of disconnection and any reconnection shall be paid by the user. The right and power of disconnection shall be in addition to any fine or penalty imposed for the violation.

(d) Any person who violates or fails to comply with any provision of this article, any requirement of an industrial wastewater discharge permit issued under this article, or an order issued pursuant to this article, may be assessed a civil penalty of up to twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) as provided for in Act 9 (35 P.S. §752.1 et seq). Such penalties shall be assessed on a per violation, per day basis. In the case of monthly or other long-term average discharge limits, penalties shall be assessed for each day during the period of violation. A lien against the User's property may be sought for unpaid charges and penalties. Users desiring to dispute such penalty shall follow the procedure as set forth in Section 931.17 hereof. In the event the User's appeal is successful, the payment, together with any interest accruing thereto, shall be returned to the User. Issuance of a civil penalty shall not be a bar against, or a prerequisite for, taking any other action against the User.
