Re: Natural Gas Supplier License Application of City Power & Gas, LLC (“CPG”); Docket No. A-2021-3025383

Dear Secretary Chiavetta:

CPG hereby submits its response to the Confidential Data Requests issued on May 14, 2021, and includes:

- Section 5.a. (Response updated to address civil matter.)
- Section 5.c. and d. (Updated to provide additional information on compliance matters.)
- Section 7.b. (Financial Fitness updated to include three recent consecutive months of bank statements and two recent consecutive years of tax returns);
- Section 7.b. (UCC Filings included for entities listed in Dun & Bradstreet credit report);
- Section 7.b. (Updated to provide additional information related to bankruptcy resolution) and
- Section 7.b. (Enclosed copy of resolution of filing of Special Events).

In addition, in accordance with Pa. Code Section 54.32, CPG encloses under separate cover and requests that its responses and corresponding attachments to the following be treated as confidential:

- Section 5.a. (Response updated to address civil matter.)
- Section 5.c. and d. (Updated to provide additional information on compliance matters.)
- Section 7.b. (Financial Fitness updated to include three recent consecutive months of bank statements and two recent consecutive years of tax returns);
- Section 7.b. (UCC Filings included for entities listed in Dun & Bradstreet credit report);
- Section 7.b. (Updated to provide additional information related to bankruptcy resolution) and
- Section 7.b. (Enclosed copy of resolution of filing of Special Events).

This information is treated as confidential by CPG, and public disclosure of such information could be potentially harmful to its position as a competitive Natural Gas Supplier. CPG further requests that its responses to any subsequent requests for additional information or clarification which staff might make with regards to these same requests also be permitted to be filed under seal. A separate public version is also attached.

Thank you, and please direct any questions or concerns about the information enclosed to the undersigned.

Respectfully,
/s/ Michelle Mann
