Docket No: A-2021-3024108

November 11, 2021

In compliance with Pennsylvania laws and statutes, WattB, Inc. dba Wattbuy hereby submits information regarding recent business changes. Wattbuy hired a new CFO, Bobby Tulsiani, who will act as an officer to the company. This has created a material change to our license information on file with the Commission, and a revised Attachment 9 is included in this filing. WattB intends to make several new hires in the coming months in their marketing, business development, and engineering organizations, and will disclose any material changes in company organizational structure or operations as they arise. Bobby Tulsiani's contact information is as follows:

Bobby Tulsiani
Title: CFO
Email: bobby@wattb.com
Phone: 512-653-7851
Address: 227 Bellevue Way NE #871, Bellevue WA 98004

Additionally, Wattbuy secured $10M in additional funding and filed a SEC Form D in late October. This funding has resulted in changes in Wattbuy's ownership structure, and information on ownership changes are attached to this filing. Wattbuy's corporate structure is otherwise unchanged.

Thank you for your review,

Attachment 9

*Experience, Plan and Structure
Pursuant Application Question 8a*

Description of Services and Vision

As described in application question 4c, Wattbuy is an energy intelligence and insights service that allows residents to compare and switch electricity plans in order to save money. Using machine learning to predict electricity usage, our platform provides customers with smart recommendations of electricity suppliers, smart home devices, energy storage, and rooftop solar systems. Our vision is to provide the energy foundation for the connected home.

WattB is paid a referral fee by the Energy Service Companies (ESCOs) it is contracted with, ranging from zero to $60 per customer, sometimes with a separate residual fee, paid monthly as long as the customers remain with the referred ESCO.

Marketing Plans

With a license, Wattbuy will start marketing to customers within Pennsylvania to help them compare various electricity plan offerings to help them decide which plan is best for their residence. Wattbuy will exclusively will be serving residential clients, with no plans to serve commercial clients. Marketing will primarily be conducted through digital advertising, through platforms like Google AdWords and Facebook Ads.

Operations in Other States

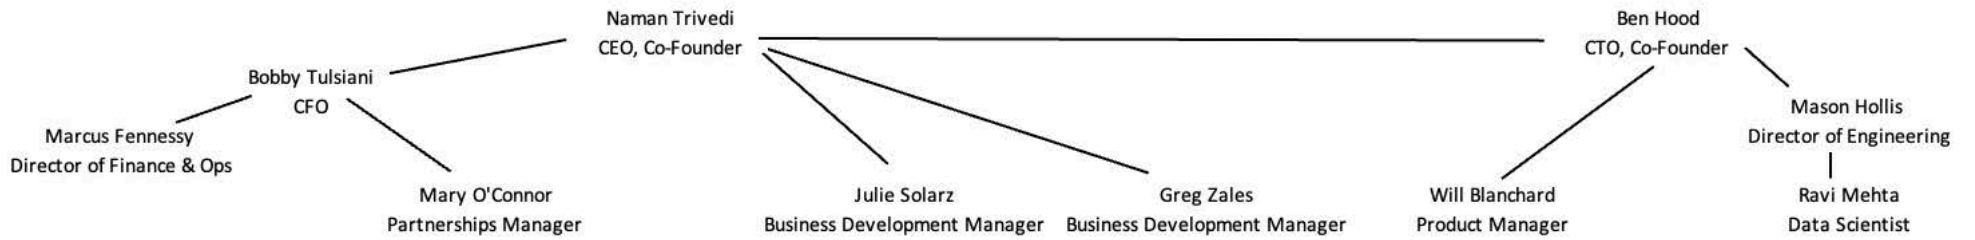

While Wattbuy holds licenses in several deregulated states (see next page), Wattbuy exclusively serves residential customers in Texas right now. Wattbuy serves around 1000 customers a year in Texas. Please see the following pages for a list of states Wattbuy has licenses in.

Technical and Managerial Competencies

Naman Trivedi, CEO and Co-Founder, and Ben Hood, CTO, are the primary business owners and operators of Wattbuy. Their combined experience with business development and electricity markets position Wattbuy for growth and success. Wattbuy secured additional funding in October 2021, resulting in ownership changes." See the following pages for additional information.
