Dear Ms. Lieba:

Thank you for speaking with me this morning regarding the above referenced matter. You have informed my that you are no longer pursuing the bankruptcy matter that resulted in the Stay of the above referenced matter.

You have further informed me that you have converted the utility usage to all electricity at 4902 Brown Street, which is the address that is the subject of the above referenced matter. Consequently, you are not interested in pursuing the litigation of the above referenced matter at this time. You intend to withdraw the complaint.

I informed you that you would have to inform the Commission and Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) Vero that you withdraw your complaint. I further informed you that PGW does not object to your withdrawing the complaint.

Pursuant to the Order in this matter dated June 22, 2021, we are to provide a status report on the case to ALJ Vero by July 10, 2021. Please send your Request to Withdraw the complaint in the above referenced matter today. Please send your email request to

Thank you Mr. Farinas.

Ms. Leiba,

Please submit as soon as possible a written request to withdraw the complaint against PGW because you no longer use their services. This way I may close this case.

Even a brief email to me will be sufficient.
