William Schneider	)	Complaint Docket
v.	)	No. C-2021-3030181
Peoples Natural Gas Company LLC	)

PRELIMINARY OBJECTIONS
TO THE FORMAL COMPLAINT OF
WILLIAM SCHNEIDER

Pursuant to 52 Pa. Code §5.101, Peoples Natural Gas Company LLC, hereinafter referred to as “Peoples” or “Company”, hereby files its preliminary objections to the Formal Complaint filed in the above-captioned matter on the grounds that the subject matter of the complaint is beyond the jurisdiction of the Public Utility Commission. The Commission is without authorization to grant the Complainant’ request for damages, and the Formal Complaint includes impertinent matter in its requested relief. Therefore, Peoples moves to strike the Complainant’ request for compensation.

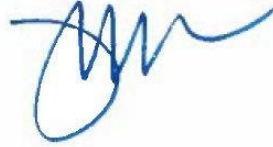

In support of its preliminary objections, Peoples states as follows:

1. The Complainant is the owner of a property located at 148 Gray Street, Pittsburgh, PA 15211 (“The Property”).
2. The Complainant filed a formal complaint with the Commission at Docket Number C-2021-3030181, averring that Peoples should pay Complainant the cost to him to replace the private natural gas service line that serves The Property along with “compensation” for his time. (the “Formal Complaint”).
3. In the Formal Complaint, the Complainant seeks compensatory damages for the alleged cost to replace the natural gas service line owned by The Property ($3,210.00) along with unspecified additional damages totaling $6,790.00. The requested relief is direct monetary compensation being paid to Complainant in the amount of $10,000.00.

4. Peoples has filed its Answer to Complaint contemporaneously with this Motion, in which it denies liability to Complainant.
5. It is well settled that the Commission has only the powers, and can only consider such matters, as are expressly, or by necessary implication, given to it by the legislature. Behrend v. Bell Telephone Co., 363 A.2d 1152 (Pa. Super 1976); Brockway Glass Company, Inc. v. West Penn Power Co., 54 Pa. P.U.C. 509 (1980); Bones v. Bates Taxi, Inc., 51 Pa. P.U.C. 346 (1977). The Public Utility Code, 66 Pa. C.S. §101, et seq. (the “Code”), gives the Commission supervisory and regulatory power over the rates, service and facilities of public utilities. Brockway Glass Company, Inc. at 514.
6. Pursuant to 52. Pa. Code §5.101, Peoples objects to the relief requested in the Formal Complaint on the grounds that the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission (the “Commission”) lacks jurisdiction to award monetary damages/compensation. The Complainant seeks to have the Company compensate him in the form of payment to him of $10,000.00. This is a request for monetary compensation.
7. Pennsylvania courts have long held that the enforcement powers of the Commission do not include the power to award monetary damages. Elkin v. Bell, 491 Pa. 123, 420 A.2d 371 (1980); Feingold v. Bell of Pennsylvania, 477 Pa. 1, 383 a.2d 791 (1978); see Nagy v. Bell Tel. Co., 436 A.2d 701 (Pa. Super. 1981). Thus, the Code does not give the Commission jurisdiction over a claim for monetary damages. Behrend v. Bell Telephone Co., 363 A.2d 1152 (Pa. Super 1976); Brockway Glass Company, Inc. v. West Penn Power Co., 54 Pa. P.U.C. 509 (1980); Bones v. Bates Taxi, Inc., 51 Pa. P.U.C. 346 (1977).
8. The Court of Common Pleas retains original jurisdiction over suits for monetary damages. Behrend v. Bell Telephone Co., 363 A.2d 1152 (Pa. Super 1976).
9. Complainant’ concerns should be addressed in the Court of Common Pleas.
10. A prayer for relief by the Complainant in the form of monetary compensation for damages is not recoverable in the cause of action before this Commission as the Commission is without authorization to award compensation for damages. The request for relief is irrelevant to the instant cause of action and therefore an “impertinent matter” within the use and meaning of 52 Pa. Code §5.101(a)(2).
11. Thus the Complainant’ request for compensation for alleged damages as well as for “compensation for my time” should be stricken from the Formal Complaint pursuant to Pa. Code §5.101(a)(2) and the Complainant should be precluded from introducing any evidence in the Formal Complaint proceeding related to a monetary or compensatory claim for damages.

WHEREFORE, Peoples respectfully requests that this Commission grant Peoples' preliminary objection to the Formal Complaint and dismiss this Complaint for lack of jurisdiction over the matters alleged therein and the inability to grant the relief sought by Complainant.

Respectfully submitted.
