Dear Judge Johnson:

I am responding to emails I received today from both you and Ms. Morris in regards to the Stephen and Nancy Ulishney vs. West Penn Power case.

Ms. Morris was sent an email on 12/24/21 that clearly stated we had no further use for the PUC, the scheduled hearing, etc. and that we were going to go another option. This decision was based on a conversation that I had with Sean Himan the engineer I worked with on our issue who stated West Penn was not going to pay our claim. This was told to Ms. Ms. Morris also in a phone conversation. We told her clearly not to contact us again.

Any further contact from Ms. Morris will be harassment.

Perhaps you should address Ms. Morris on why she did not communicate the email from 12/24/22 with you.

Based on the facts that more information has come to light on the issue, and the PUC cannot get monetary payments to the claimants, we have chosen to go a different avenue.

Sincerely,

Stephen and Nancy Ulishney

DEAR MS. MORRIS:

I AM NOT SURE WHY YOU SENT THIS LAST EMAIL TO US, FOR IN MY LAST EMAIL TO YOU, MY CLOSING STATEMENT SAID WE WERE MOVING ON AND HAD NO FURTHER USE FOR THE PUC, THE HEARING ETC. PLEASE DO NOT CONTACT US AGAIN.

YOU JUST PROVED MY POINT MENTION IN AN EARLY EMAIL, THAT POINT IS THAT THE PUC IS NOTHING BUT ANOTHER GOVERNMENT AGENCY, THAT PUSHES PAPER AND ACCOMPLISHES NOTHING. DIFFIDENTLY WILL SPREAD THE WORD NEVER TO GO TO THE PUC.

SINCERELY,

KAREN ULISHNEY
