Re: Docket No. C-2021-3028211
Marino v. MAIT and Met-Ed
Response to Consolidation Request

Your Honors:

Please accept this letter¹ on behalf of Mid-Atlantic Interstate Transmission, LLC and Metropolitan Edison Company (collectively Respondents) in response to the letter request of Michael and Margaret Marino (Complainants) seeking to consolidate the above-referenced proceeding with other complaints filed against the Respondents.

The Respondents do not object to the consolidation of the above-referenced proceeding with the following dockets where consolidation is requested:

- C-2021-3028186; Debora N. Connell v. Met-Ed
- C-2021-3028278; Rebecca Walizer v. Met-Ed and MAIT
- C-2021-3028286; Michael R. Florio v. Met-Ed and MAIT
- C-2021-3028346; Stanley and Eileen Krasinski v. Met-Ed and MAIT
- C-2021-3028414; Andrew S. Freiberg v. Met-Ed and MAIT
- C-2021-3028416; Neal Walmer v. Met-Ed and MAIT
- C-2021-3028418; Michael and Karen Fedash v. Met-Ed and MAIT
- C-2021-3028464; Tracy and Jill Troutman v. Met-Ed and MAIT

Consistent with 52 Pa. Code § 5.222, the Respondents respectfully request that a Prehearing Conference be scheduled for the consolidated proceeding so that a litigation schedule, including the filing of written testimony, may be considered.

A copy of this response has been forwarded to the Complainants in the manner indicated on the attached Certificate of Service.

¹ While the Complainants' letter states that it is a motion, it does not conform with Commission regulations at 52 Pa. Code §5.103. The filing does not contain the mandatory notice to plead or certificate of service.
