Note: If your complaint is only about removing or modifying a municipal lien filed by the City of Philadelphia, the Public Utility Commission (PUC) cannot address it. Only local courts in Philadelphia County can address this type of complaint. The PUC can address a complaint about service or incorrect billing even if that amount is subject to a lien.

In addition, the PUC generally does not handle complaints about cell phone or Internet service, but may be able to resolve a dispute regarding voice communications over the Internet (including the inability to make voice 911/E911 emergency calls) or concerns about high-speed access to Internet service.

5. Requested Relief

How do you want your complaint to be resolved? Explain what you want the PUC to order the utility or company to do. Use additional paper if you need more space.

See

@mail

Note: The PUC can decide that a customer was not billed correctly and can order billing refunds. The PUC can also fine a utility or company for not following rules and can order a utility or company to correct a problem with your service. Under state law, the PUC cannot decide whether a utility or company should pay customers for loss or damages. Damage claims may be sought in an appropriate civil court.

6. Protection From Abuse (PFA)/ Domestic Violence

The PUC needs this information to properly process your complaint so that your identity is not made public.

Note: You must answer this question if your complaint is against a natural gas distribution utility, an electric distribution utility or a water distribution utility AND your complaint is about a problem involving billing, a request to receive service, a security deposit request, termination of service or a request for a payment agreement.

Dear PUC:

I recently filed a formal complaint against ppl for not living up to their payment arrangement with me. I had spoken to their lawyer and we had arranged a mutual beneficial agreement. After I agreed to it, I started to pay but ppl then said the agreement was no valid without any reason.

I am trying to reinstate this agreement.

I just filed another complaint.

I received notice that the compliant was in place but that was it.

Nothing further saying anything about a hearing or who to contact.

Yesterday I received notice my ppl was behind again.

I need to reinstate the process so I can speak to PPL lawyer again please.

Contact me directly at 717 329 9179.

Thank you,

John
