Re: RE: Francene Tearpock-Martini v. UGI Utilities, Inc.
Dkt. No. C-2022-3033942

Dear Judge Collins:

Since my case is in your jurisdiction, this is meant to bring you up to date.

On December 1, 2022, I caught SNAM Communications for Frontier Communications, affiliate of UGI Utilities, Inc., chopping at my Magnolia tree and shrubbery along my Historic cut stone wall running fiber optic wires from UGI Utility Pole #44016-36274 SR 11 South Main Street southeast side pole to UGI Utility Pole #44025-36282 Furnace Street middle of the sidewalk in front of Carriage House southwest pole.

Frontier Communications rent the poles from UGI Utility, Inc.

This continued bullying and harassment is not acceptable. They are causing damage to my property and to my wellbeing.

UGI Utilities, Inc. rents their poles out and should be responsible for these activities as they are the owner of the Utility Poles that should be appropriately placed to accommodate the use by themselves and affiliates and supervised to prevent these occurrences. They are violating my property.

Furthermore, I was given no prior notice to anyone being here.

Respectfully,

Francene Tearpock-Martini
