Docket No. C-2023-3038658

Dear Secretary Chiavetta:

Attached for filing on behalf of UGI Utilities, Inc. – Electric Division (“UGI Electric”) is the Motion to Sever From This Complaint Proceeding Certain of the Claims Related to UGI Electric’s Ongoing Base Rate Proceeding (“Motion to Sever”) at Docket Nos. R-2022-3037368, et al.

UGI Electric initially filed the same on April 10, 2023. That filing was rejected by the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission (“Commission”) due to an incorrect docket number. The docket number has been corrected and, at the Commission’s direction, UGI Electric is now refileing the Motion to Sever.

Copies will be provided as indicated on the Certificate of Service.

Respectfully submitted,

Nicholas A. Stobbe

MOTION OF UGI UTILITIES, INC. – ELECTRIC DIVISION TO SEVER FROM THIS COMPLAINT PROCEEDING CERTAIN OF THE CLAIMS RELATED TO UGI
UTILITIES, INC – ELECTRIC DIVISION’S ONGOING BASE RATE PROCEEDING

TO ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE CHAD ALLENSWORTH:

UGI Utilities, Inc. – Electric Division (“UGI Electric” or “Company”) hereby files this Motion to Sever the claims related to UGI Electric’s pending base rate proceeding at Docket Nos. R-2022-3037368, et al. from the above-captioned Formal Complaint (“Complaint”) filed by Michael Oresick, Sr. (“Complainant”) at Docket No. C-2023-3038658. The instant Complaint is attached hereto as Appendix A.¹ The Complaint raises two separate and distinct issues: (1) UGI Electric’s pending request for a base rate increase at Docket Nos. R-2022-3037368, et al. (“2023 Rate Case”); and (2) a billing dispute between the Complainant and UGI Electric. The Company’s 2023 Rate Case is currently being litigated. Moreover, after UGI Electric filed its Answer to the Complaint on March 22, 2023, UGI Electric was served with a separate Rate Complaint filed by the Complainant at Docket No. C-2023-3039230 on March 24, 2023 (“Rate Complaint”), concerning the Company's 2023 Rate Case.² The Rate Complaint re-raises the same or substantially similar issues concerning the 2023 Rate Case that the Complainant raises in the instant Complaint. The Rate Complaint is attached hereto as Appendix B.³

It is appropriate, equitable, and an efficient use of resources to sever the 2023 Rate Case issues from the instant Complaint. The 2023 Rate Case is the proper forum to address those issues, particularly in light of the Complainant's filing of the Rate Complaint. If the base rate case issues were to proceed as part of the instant Complaint, the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission ("Commission") would have two separate proceedings about the same or substantially similar issues. Such parallel litigation would be inefficient and create the potential for conflicting rulings. Furthermore, given that the Complainant filed the Rate Complaint, his base rate case-related issues are being litigated in that proceeding and should not be duplicated in the instant Complaint proceeding.

In support thereof, UGI Electric avers the following:

I. BACKGROUND

1. On March 2, 2023, UGI Electric was served with the above-captioned Complaint. The Complaint raises two separate and distinct issues: (1) UGI Electric's pending 2023 Rate Case; and (2) a billing dispute between the Complainant and UGI Electric.

2. On March 22, 2023, UGI Electric timely served an Answer to the Complaint.

3. On March 24, 2023, UGI Electric was served with the Complainant's Rate Complaint at Docket No. C-2023-3039230 concerning the Company's 2023 Rate Case at Docket

² Had the Complainant filed the Rate Complaint prior to the Company's Answer to the instant Complaint was filed and served, UGI Electric would have filed a Preliminary Objection pursuant to 52 Pa. Code § 5.101(a)(6), i.e., pendency of a prior proceeding.

³ Any potentially confidential or sensitive customer information has been redacted from Appendix B.

Nos. R-2022-3037368, et al. The Rate Complaint re-raises the same or substantially similar issues about the 2023 Rate Case that the Complainant raises in the instant Complaint.

4. UGI Electric’s aforementioned 2023 Rate Case was initiated on January 27, 2023, when the Company filed Supplement No. 51 to UGI Electric Service Tariff -- Pa. P.U.C. No. 6 (“Tariff No. 6”) and Supplement No. 7 to UGI Electric Generation Supplier Coordination Tariff - - Pa. P.U.C. No. 2S (“Tariff No. 2S”) with the Commission to be effective for service rendered on or after March 28, 2023. The Company proposed changes to UGI Electric’s base retail distribution rates designed to produce an increase in revenues of approximately $11.4 million, based upon data for a fully projected future test year ending September 30, 2024.

5. Public input hearings in the 2023 Rate Case are scheduled for 1:00 PM and 6:00 PM on April 11, 2023, when interested parties and customer complainants, such as the Complainant, can testify about their issues concerning the Company’s propose base rate increase.

6. Evidentiary hearings in the 2023 Rate Case are scheduled for June 13 and 14, 2023.

II. MOTION TO SEVER

7. UGI Electric respectfully requests that the instant Complaint’s issues concerning the 2023 Rate Case be severed from this proceeding.

8. As explained previously, the Complainant raises base rate case related issues in the instant Complaint that are the same or substantially similar to the ones raised in the Complainant’s Rate Complaint filed in the 2023 Rate Case.

9. Specifically, through the instant Complaint, the Complainant disputes, among other things, “the “Rate Increase Issue” and asserts that the Company “must prove that the requested rates are reasonable.” (Complaint ¶¶ 4-5.) He also claims that the Commission “is expected to grant all, some, or whatever is deemed correct and fair and then will reduce existing rates and other previous years[’] rates that apply.” (Complaint ¶ 5.) Further, the Complainant alleges that UGI

Electric’s “Notice of Proposed Rate Changes . . . was ambiguous, inaccurate, hastily and ill[-]prepared.” (Complaint ¶ 4.)

10. Likewise, in the Rate Complaint, the Complainant asserts that UGI Electric “must prove that the requested rates are reasonable” and that the Commission “is expected to grant all, some, or whatever is deemed correct and fair and then will reduce existing rates and other previous years[’] rates that apply.” (Rate Complaint ¶ 6.) Also, the Complainant claims that the Company’s “Notice of Proposed Rate Changes . . . was ambiguous, inaccurate, hastily and ill[-]prepared.” (Rate Complaint ¶ 5.)

11. As such, the Complainant has two active complaints raising the same or substantially similar issues regarding UGI Electric’s 2023 Rate Case.

12. It would be inefficient and a waste of time and resources for these issues to be litigated in separate proceedings. In fact, if the base rate case issues were to proceed as part of the instant Complaint, the Commission would have two separate proceedings about the same or substantially similar issues. Such parallel litigation would be inefficient and create the potential for conflicting rulings.

13. In addition, the 2023 Rate Case is the proper forum to address the Complainant’s base rate case related issues, particularly in light of the Complainant’s filing of the Rate Complaint. Indeed, public input hearings have already been scheduled and present a readily available and convenient opportunity for the Complainant to testify about his issues concerning the 2023 Rate Case.

14. Moreover, by severing the 2023 Rate Case related claims from the instant Complaint, both the Complainant and UGI Electric could focus their attention to the Complainant’s billing related issues that were raised in the instant Complaint.

15. Finally, UGI Electric observes that the Commission has severed complaint proceedings from base rate proceedings in the past “in order to give a thorough treatment of the issues.” Pa. PUC v. Duquesne Light Co., Docket Nos. R-2013-2372129, et al., (Interim Order Granting Motion to Sever Issued Mar. 27, 2014.) Although this case presents the reverse situation (i.e., severing rate case issues from another complaint proceeding), the same reasoning should apply here. UGI Electric’s request will allow the rate case issues to be addressed in the 2023 Rate Case, while the remaining issues would be adjudicated in this proceeding.

16. For these reasons, UGI Electric respectfully requests that the instant Complaint’s issues concerning the 2023 Rate Case be severed from this proceeding.

III. CONCLUSION

Wherefore, UGI Utilities, Inc. – Electric Division respectfully requests that Administrative Law Judge Chad Allensworth grant this Motion to Sever and enter an appropriate order severing the allegations related to UGI Electric’s 2023 Rate Case at Docket Nos. R-2022-3037368, et al., from the instant Complaint proceeding.
