

PENNSYLVANIA PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION
Protest to an Application

In accordance with 52 Pa. Code Section 5.51 – a person objecting to the approval of an Application may file a Protest.

Filing this form makes you a Party to the case. All Protests are public information and cannot be treated as confidential. The form you file will be placed on the public record of the docket of the Application and appear on the PUC's website.

Once you are a Party to this Application case, you are expected to follow the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure under 52 Pa. Code Chapters 1 and 5. Parties are expected to offer and answer interrogatories, produce witnesses, testimony and briefs, follow all instructions and orders issued by the presiding Administrative Law Judge, and serve all other Parties by first class mail with any filings you make during the course of the litigation of this Application.

Public Input Hearings are sometimes held in Application cases. If you decide not to participate as a Party, and a public input hearing is held, you may appear at a public input hearing and present testimony before an administrative law judge. Testimony made upon oath or affirmation at a public input hearing will be considered by the administrative law judge when rendering a decision in the case. In the alternative, you may file comments regarding the Application with the Secretary of the Commission which will be placed in the public comment folder of the case and reviewed by the Commission. Written comments are not evidence in the case and will not be considered by the administrative law judge in rendering a decision in the case.

If a Public Input Hearing Is Held

If a public input hearing is scheduled, it may be held in your area to give the public an opportunity to present testimony in person before an administrative law judge regarding the Application.

Notice of a public input hearing will be published in a newspaper of general circulation in your area, publicized through Commission press releases, and noted on the Commission's website: www.puc.pa.gov.
