Hello Judge Devoe,

I wish to withdraw my complaint due to jurisdiction judgment against me. Leaving me without the ability to present my case. Due to the court being unable to acknowledge my stance. I informed Mrs Farhah of this temporary decision. Based on jurisdiction ruling.

Thank you

Your Honor,

Minutes ago, I received correspondence from the Complainant indicating that he intends to withdraw his complaint. Absent different instructions from Your Honor, Duquesne Light is willing to inform as such on the record, and follow up with a Certificate of Satisfaction that indicates that the Complainant no longer wishes to pursue the complaint, pursuant to 52 Pa. Code § 5.24(b)(2).

The Complainant has been copied on this email to avoid any ex parte communications.

Respectfully,

Emily M. Farah

Mr. Morefield,

I am copying Ms. Farah to cure the ex parte email.

I cannot provide you any legal advice. As for transferring your case, you may file a written motion consistent with the Commission's rules, which will give the Company an opportunity to respond to your motion. You may also file a written request to withdraw if you no longer wish to proceed with the complaint you filed with the Commission.

The evidentiary hearing will convene as scheduled unless the parties hear otherwise from me or another representative of the Commission's Office of Administrative Law Judge.

Thank you,

Judge DeVoe

Hello Judge Devoe,

I wanted to respond to the notification of continuance for October 10,2023. I had a question, your honor. Can this case be moved to a court of equity? As a 3rd party designee, Real Party interest, I feel as though my evidence that I've shown along with the questions that I've asked continuously. Are being ignored and (DLC) attorney is using "jurisdiction" as a means to allude to answering. Securities (Dividend checks aka remittance coupons) with my wet ink signature were kept with no accountability. Which is my property, from which I wasn't given any valuable consideration.

Sincerely,

Michael Moorefield.,Agent

Your Honor,

Thank you for your prompt reply. DLC's witness is available for a rescheduled hearing on October 10, but not October 12.

Your Honor,

Pursuant to the Hearing Notice dated August 28, 2023, Duquesne Light Company (“DLC”) hereby requests a continuance in the Moorefield v. DLC formal complaint proceeding docketed at C-2023-3041919, which is currently scheduled for an evidentiary hearing on October 11, 2023. DLC is requesting the continuance because DLC’s witness for this proceeding will be unavailable on October 11th.

On September 8, 2023, DLC contacted the Complainant regarding the within request. To date, the Company has not received a reply from the Complainant. The Complainant has been copied on this correspondence.

Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

Respectfully,

Emily M. Farah
