Re: Philip Alexander Carlton v PECO Energy Company
Docket No. C-2023-3039584

TO ALL PARTIES:

By Secretarial Letter dated November 3, 2023, the Commission issued the Initial Decision of Administrative Law Judge F. Joseph Brady this matter. Exceptions were due within twenty days of that letter (i.e., November 23, 2023). Reply Exceptions were due within ten days after the date that Exceptions were due (i.e., December 3, 2023).

On November 13, 2023, Philip Andrew Carlton, the Complainant, filed a letter requesting a copy of the transcripts as well as an extension of time of ten more days to file Exceptions after receipt of the transcripts.

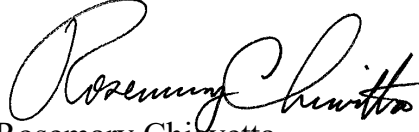

At the outset we note that pursuant to Commission Regulations a party or other person desiring copies of the transcript may obtain copies from the official reporter upon payment of the fees fixed therefore. 52 Pa Code § 5.524.

The Commission's Regulation at 52 Pa. Code § 1.15 permits the Commission to grant an extension of time for good cause shown before the pertinent time period has expired. The Commission finds that given Mr. Carlton is operating pro se in this matter and is requesting a copy of the transcript he has established good cause for the requested extension of time. As a result, the Commission will extend the period for filing Exceptions by a total of twenty-five (25) days. We will allow fifteen days for the Complainant to contact and receive a copy of the transcript and an additional ten (10) days after that period for the filing of Exceptions.

Exceptions, therefore, shall be filed on or before December 18, 2023 and Reply Exceptions shall be filed on or before December 28, 2023.
