CERTIFICATE OF SATISFACTION

I, Khadijah Scott, Esquire, representing PECO Energy Company in this matter, hereby certify that on November 20, 2023, I was contacted by someone who identified as the Complainant’s granddaughter, Nay. I was advised that the Complainant passed away on October 17, 2023. Upon independent research, PECO located an obituary for the Complainant, which confirmed her date of death as October 17, 2023 (ATTACHMENT 1). PECO’s efforts to contact the Complainant’s estate have been unfruitful. As the Complainant is deceased and efforts to contact her estate have failed, there is no one to pursue the issues raised in the Formal Complaint against PECO Energy Company filed by Complainant with the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission and docketed at Complaint Docket No. F-2023-3043319. Accordingly, PECO files this Certificate of Satisfaction as the Complainant is deceased and unable pursue the Complaint.

This Certificate of Satisfaction is provided pursuant to 52 Pa. Code §5.24(b). Unless the Complainant's estate files an objection to this Certificate within ten (10) days of its filing, the Formal Complaint shall be withdrawn and the Commission's file closed.

Respectfully Submitted,

Margaret A. Mason, 73 of Coatesville, Pennsylvania, passed away on Tuesday, October 17, 2023 under the care of Paoli Hospital.

Born March 6, 1950, in Coatesville, Pennsylvania, she was the daughter to the late Theodore R. Mason and Blanche E. Miller.

Lovingly known as "Peg," she graduated from Octorara High School in 1969. During her high school years, she became proficient in typing and took up the art of shorthand. Peg found employment at the Nupak Corporation in Christiana, PA where she worked for a short time. Upon leaving Nupak, she began a career at the Veterans Hospital in Coatesville. A career that would last for over 30 years! She started her career working in the dietetics department handling many different tasks until she found her love in the nursing department as a nurse's aide. Where she would stay until she retired in 1999.

Peg was a huge sports fan throughout her life. Her favorite teams being the Philadelphia Eagles and the Phillies. Her love for sports began as a young girl, where she enjoyed playing softball for the Atglen girls softball team, where she was the pitcher. Peg enjoyed watching old movies, sports, and her favorite TV shows such as NCIS and anything on the ID Chanel. She enjoyed cooking and baking, and you would always catch her making the cream cheese cookies during her holiday cookie day with her sisters. Peg was devoted grandmother and she enjoyed spending time with her grandkids who loving called her "Mom-Mom."

Peg's faith kept her grounded and motivated throughout her life. She was a committed member of Mt. Zion AME Church in Atglen, PA, the church that she grew up in and remained devoted to for 73 years.

Peg is survived by her son Brian Mason of Coatesville, Pennsylvania, her sisters Patricia Mason and Dorothy Washington of Roy, New Mexico, Carol Mathis of Atglen, Pennsylvania, Joan Dunham of Oxford, Pennsylvania and Denise Williams of Sicklerville, New Jersey, her grandchildren, La'Nayja Mason, Savon Ellis, Lawrence Mack, Brian Mason Jr., Winter Cole, Kyra Mack, Owen Mack, Martin Mack, Brandon Mack and her great granddaughter Islah Bailey all from Coatesville, Pennsylvania. She also leaves to mourn her memory a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Peg is preceded in death by her parents, Theodore R. Mason and Blanche E. Mason, daughter Yolanda Mack, dear friend John McDonald, brothers Richard Mason and Theodore Mason and sister Mary Mason Burns.
