ORDINANCE OF VENANGO TOWNSHIP
ERIE COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA No. 2006-06

After legal notice and hearing thereon, the Board of Supervisors of Venango Township, Erie County, Pennsylvania enacts and ordains the following ordinance relative to township road right-of-ways.

Whereas, Venango Township operates and maintains numerous public roads in Venango Township, Erie County, Pennsylvania; and

Whereas it is believed that historically the township road right-of-ways have been set and established at fifty (50) feet; and

Whereas, the historical records of the township are incomplete and/or are unavailable; and

Whereas, it is the desire of the Supervisors of Venango Township to establish a routine standard for said road right-of-ways.

Now, Therefore, the Supervisors of Venango Township ordain as follows:

All historical road right-of-ways in Venango Township, Erie County, Pennsylvania which are currently being maintained by the township and those that are not being maintained by the township are hereby established as being fifty (50) foot in width measured from the center of aforesaid road right-of-way.

All future township roads shall also have a fifty (50) foot right-of-way, said right-of-way being measured twenty-five (25) feet from the center line of said road.

The township of Venango, its officers, employees, agents, independent contractors and servants, shall not in any way be responsible or liable to any land owner, tenant or occupier of any portion of a township right-of-way for any damages occasioned by township maintenance, road work repair or snow plowing in said right-of-way.

No landowner, tenant or occupier of a township road right-of-way may construct any structure or facility or place any pipe or otherwise put any manmade creation within the township right-of-way except with the written consent of the then existing road master of Venango Township.

The Venango township, its officers, employees, independent contractors, servants and agents shall not be responsible in any way for any damages done to trees, plants, existing water courses or other natural features existing on the land within the township's right-of-way.

This ordinance shall be effective within five (5) days of its enactment.
