MOTION FOR REHEARING/REARGUMENT

Pursuant to § 5.572 of the Code, I Mr. M. Hillman hereby Motion the Court in request of a Rehearing and Reargument. Plaintiff did not have a Complete, Full & Fair Hearing in regards to Due Process (See Artis v. District of Columbia).

- I. During the May 16, 2023, telephonic hearing, there was No Oath administered. Following this, during the June 27, 2023 hearing, I was handed a sealed envelope (for the first time) containing a Court order (supposedly returned to the Court) {see 66 Pa Code §§ 331 and 14.10}.
- II. Also, I never received a 125 page reply from Aqua dated July 17, 2023, in order to Fairly & Timely Respond. In Conjunction, there were Two Court Orders that I did not receive in a timely manner, in order to Respond/Object. I received a copy of the Reply & Two Orders (all three) from the Court on August 18, 2023.
- III. At this Point, I would request that all future hearings (if any) to be held in person, and the Hearings scheduled to begin, during morning hours. The abundance of Evidence can not be covered within 3 hours of Hearing Time.
