ORDER
DENYING PECO’S MOTION FOR A CONTINUANCE

By Hearing Notice dated March 7, 2024, an Initial Call-In Telephonic Hearing was scheduled for Wednesday, May 8, 2024, at 10:00 a.m. and the matter was assigned to me.

A Prehearing Order was issued on April 5, 2024, reminding the parties of the date and time of the scheduled hearing, and informing them of the procedures applicable to this proceeding.

On April 29, 2024, PECO Energy Company (PECO or Respondent), filed a Motion for Continuance. PECO states that its witness, Timothy Grow, is unavailable on the hearing date due to preplanned travel out-of-state. PECO requested a one-week continuance.

Anne Peckham (Complainant or Ms. Peckham) objected to the continuance request. The Complainant stated that she already arranged her professional and personal calendar around the scheduled hearing date including postponing a family vacation and jury duty.

I do not find that PECO has presented good cause to grant a continuance. PECO has been aware that Timothy Grow is a key witness since the Complaint was filed on September 22, 2023. PECO received notice of the hearing close to two months ago on March 7, 2024. Knowing Mr. Grow is a key witness, PECO should have checked his availability around that time, or at least checked upon receipt of the Prehearing Order on April 5, 2024. Instead, PECO waited until a week
