MOTION FOR CONTINUANCE

Pursuant to 52 Pa. Code § 5.103, Complainant Michael T. Jennings respectfully requests that his formal complaint proceedings be continued to a later time due to unforeseen circumstances that transpired within the last two weeks.

In support of his Motion, Complainant sets forth the following:

1. Complainant had major heart surgery, aortic valve replacement, on May 13, 2024.
2. Complainant will have to have cardiac rehab for a few months.
3. Complainant will have numerous doctors' appointments over the coming months.
4. Complainant's wife, Susan, is in charge of his Medical Directives, scheduling appointments, transporting him to appointments, in-home care, in-home testing, etc.
5. This is in addition to caring for a disabled son.
6. Complainant does not need the added stress of the complaint until he has fully recovered.
7. Please refer to Attachment 1, information from UPMC which confirms the procedure.

Based on the foregoing reasons, Complainant respectfully requests that the proceedings of his formal complaint be continued for six months through November 30, 2024 to ensure his complete recovery before moving forward.

Respectfully Submitted,

Michael T. Jennings
Complainant
