COMPLAINANT'S RESPONSE TO NEW MATTER

1. Admitted
2. Admitted
3. Denied. This is regarding POST Petition Debt
4. Admitted
5. Denied. Bankruptcy Courts only have Jurisdiction over Pre-Petition Debt
6. Admitted. However any collection effort is supposed to be stayed because this appeal is still active in the Commonwealth Court. No collection effort should be enforced until after the appeal has been concluded by the Commonwealth Court.
7. Denied
8. Denied
9. Denied
10. Denied. Bankruptcy Courts only have Jurisdiction of pre petition debt only
11. Admitted. However the Commonwealth Court does have jurisdiction over appeals regarding decisions made by the PUC and most other state departments.

Therefore the Complainant requests the court to hear this matter as this isn't only regarding the payment plan. This matter is also regarding ongoing collection efforts such as Shut Off.
