Company Response: CGE Renewables LLC is updating its biography of Key Personnel. Please remove Mark Marzocchi, Sr. Vice President of Commercial Sales, and replace with Chris Smith, Vice President of Commercial Sales. There is no change to Robert Palmese's information.

Please remove:

Mark Marzocchi, Sr. Vice President of Commercial Sales.

Please add:

Chris Smith - Vice President of Commercial Sales

Mr. Chris Smith joined CGE Renewables LLC ("CGE") Energy on October 31, 2024. Mr. Smith in the last 22 years has been actively involved in the deregulated energy markets in multiply states, and he has led commercial sales, residential sales, marketing, customer care, back-office operations, and regulatory compliance for some of the most respected renewables, electricity, and natural gas providers in the nation. Prior to joining CGE, Mr. Smith operated as a licensed electricity, natural gas and renewables consultant. He served as the general manager for Shipley Energy and as the vice president at DPL Energy Resources. He has served as vice president and chief operating officer within the solar industry as well. Mr. Smith has successfully developed innovative products, sales process automation tools, and optimized programs for numerous solar, retail electricity and natural gas suppliers across the country.
