On September 13, 2024, PPL Electric Utilities Corporation filed its Petition for findings that a structure to shelter electrical and control equipment at the proposed Chanceford Switchyard In Chanceford Township, York County, Pennsylvania is reasonably necessary for the convenience or welfare of the public, pursuant to 52 Pa. The Petition was filed with the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission at Docket Number P-2024-3051163.

The Conference is open to the public. At the prehearing conference, the parties should be prepared to discuss all relevant issues related to these three proceedings and any related proceedings, a litigation schedule, as well as any request to consolidate these proceedings and any other related proceedings, any objections to Protests or Petitions to Intervene, and the scheduling of public input hearing(s) or any other appropriate requests or proceedings to be conducted prior to the evidentiary hearing.

In response to this Prehearing Order, you may proceed in one of three ways:

Do nothing. If you do nothing after receiving this Prehearing Conference Order, your name will be removed from the service list. You may still attend and testify at a public input hearing, if one is scheduled, as explained in the next paragraph.

Attend a public input hearing if one is scheduled. Public input hearings, if scheduled, may be held in geographical areas affected by the filings for the purpose of giving citizens who do not wish to participate in the formal litigation an opportunity to express their opinions regarding the Company's proposal. If you testify at a public input hearing, you will not be permitted to also testify at the evidentiary hearings. Notice of the public input hearing, if one is scheduled, will be published in your local newspaper before it is held and on PPL's website.

Become a party of record. As a party of record, you will be served with all of the pleadings, filings, discovery requests, written testimony and orders and decisions served and issued in this proceeding. These documents will be voluminous. Your rights as a party of record include the ability to present your own testimony or documents and to cross-examine other witnesses at the formal hearings, and to file exceptions to the administrative law judges' decision. Your duties as a party of record are that you must answer all discovery requests served upon you in accordance with the rules. You will be required to serve a copy of anything that you file upon the administrative law judges and each party appearing on the service list, as modified after the Prehearing Conference, regardless of the cost of postage. If you intend to present evidence at the formal evidentiary hearings, you will be required to submit your testimony and documents in writing in advance, in accordance with the schedule to be set at the Prehearing Conference and to provide a copy of your written testimony to each party on the service list. You will be expected to participate in accordance with the rules of Commission practice appearing in Title 52 of the Pennsylvania Code Chapters 1, 3 and 5. The Pennsylvania Code is available on-line at www.pacode.com.
