INITIAL DECISION

Before

Administrative Law Judge

INTRODUCTION

This decision dismisses the Formal Complaint of Jonquil Waller for failure to appear for the hearing and prosecute the Complaint.

HISTORY OF THE PROCEEDING

On May 15, 2024, Jonquil Waller (Complainant) filed a Formal Complaint (Complaint) with the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission (Commission) against PECO Energy Company (Respondent or PECO) disputing the amount of a bill for service by PECO.

On June 12, 2024, the Respondent filed an Answer in which it denied the material allegations of fact and conclusions of law in the Complaint. The Respondent requested that the Complaint be dismissed.

On June 12, 2024, the Respondent also filed Preliminary Objections to the Complaint. A Motion Judge Assignment Notice was issued to the parties on June 26, 2024, assigning Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) Darlene Heep as the presiding officer in the matter. The Preliminary Objections were accompanied by a Notice to Plead informing the Complainant that she had ten days from the date of service to respond to the Preliminary Objections. The Complainant did not file a response to the Preliminary Objections.

On August 2, 2024, ALJ Heep issued an Order denying the Respondent's Preliminary Objections.

On August 12, 2024, a Judge Change Notice was issued advising the parties that Judge Heep was no longer assigned to this matter and that I had been assigned as the presiding officer in this matter.

By Initial Call-In Telephonic Hearing Notice dated August 16, 2024, a telephonic hearing was scheduled for September 30, 2024. The Hearing Notice provided the parties with the Toll-Free Bridge Number and the PIN to call and participate in the telephonic hearing. The Hearing Notice further stated as follows:

FAILURE TO APPEAR: You may lose the case if you do not take part in this hearing and present evidence on the issue(s) raised. Your case may be dismissed “with prejudice” which means that you will be barred from filing another complaint raising the same claim(s) and issue(s) presented in the dismissed complaint.

CONTINUANCES. You may request a continuance of the hearing if you have a good reason. All continuances will be granted only for good cause. To request a continuance, you must submit a written request (a “motion”) at least five (5) days before the hearing. Your motion should include: 1) The case name, number, and hearing date; 2) The reason for the request; and 3) Whether the other party agrees (or if you do not know).

On August 16, 2024, a Prehearing Order was served on the parties reminding them of the date and time of the hearing. The Prehearing Order warned against possible dismissal for failure to appear. Additionally, the Prehearing Order informed the parties about the applicable procedural rules, and again included the procedure to follow for hearing continuances.

The Hearing Notice and Prehearing Order were emailed to the Complainant at the Complainant's request and in the ordinary course of the Commission's business to the email address provided by the Complainant.¹ Neither the Hearing Notice nor the Prehearing Order were returned to the Commission as undeliverable.

On September 30, 2024, the hearing convened as scheduled. Khadijah Scott, Esquire, appeared on behalf of PECO and was ready to proceed. The Complainant was not present to start the hearing. After a short recess to allow time for the Complainant to appear, the hearing proceeded in the Complainant's absence. No testimony was taken, and no exhibits were introduced into the record. At the hearing, the Respondent moved to dismiss the Complaint for the Complainant's failure to appear and prosecute. I took this motion under advisement.

The Complainant has not contacted the Commission to explain why the Complainant's failure to appear at the hearing was unavoidable.

The record closed on October 4, 2024, upon the filing of the transcript with the Commission.

DISCUSSION

Administrative agencies, such as the Commission, are required to provide due process to the parties appearing before them. Schneider v. Pa. Pub. Util. Comm'n, 479 A.2d 10 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1984). This due process requirement is satisfied when the parties are provided notice and the opportunity to be heard. Id.

The record shows that Complainant was provided notice and the opportunity to be heard. On August 16, 2024, the Complainant was served a Hearing Notice which advised the parties of the date and time of the hearing, and how to participate. On August 16, 2024, a Prehearing Order was issued providing additional information to the parties regarding the hearing. Both the Hearing Notice and the Prehearing Order advised the Complainant that the case could be dismissed if the Complainant did not call in and participate in the hearing.

The Hearing Notice and Prehearing Order were served to the Complainant at the email address provided by the Complainant. Neither were returned as undeliverable. Accordingly, I must presume that these documents, which were sent in the ordinary course of business, were received by the Complainant. Skow v. Metro. Edison Co., Docket No. F-2023-3042228 (Final Order entered May 7, 2024); Hu v. PECO Energy Co., Docket No. C-2019-3012075 (Order entered Dec. 19, 2019); Zirkel v. Phila. Gas Works, Docket No. C-2016-2561176 (Final Order entered Apr. 7, 2017); Morella v. PECO Energy Co., Docket No. C-2016-2553416 (Final Order entered Jan. 31, 2017).

Once a hearing is scheduled and the parties are duly notified by the Commission, it is the responsibility of the parties to appear and participate in the hearing. Mumma v. PPL Elec. Utils. Corp., Docket No. C-00014869 (Opinion and Order entered Jan. 28, 2002). Both the Public Utility Code and the Commission's regulations provide that, after being notified, a party who fails to appear at a scheduled hearing shall be deemed to have waived the opportunity to participate in the hearing and shall not be permitted to later reopen the matter or be permitted to recall excused witnesses. 66 Pa.C.S. § 332(f); 52 Pa. Code § 5.245(a). However, these provisions in the Code and in the Commission's regulations do not apply if the presiding officer determines that the party's failure to appear at the hearing was unavoidable and that the interests of the other parties and of the public would not be prejudiced by permitting the reopening or further examination. 66 Pa.C.S. § 332(f); 52 Pa. Code § 5.245(b).

The party who failed to appear at the hearing has the burden of explaining why his/her failure to appear was unavoidable. 66 Pa.C.S. § 332(a); Herr v. West Penn Power Co., Docket No. C-2021-3028202 (Opinion and Order entered Sept. 15, 2022). When there are no facts in the record that the party's failure to appear was unavoidable, the complaint should be dismissed. Brown v. PECO Energy Co., Docket No. C-2019-3009486 (Opinion and Order entered Apr. 22, 2022); Little v. Pittsburgh Water & Sewer Auth., Docket No. F-2021-3027107 (Opinion and Order entered Feb. 7, 2022); Williams v. PECO Energy Co., Docket No. C-2018-3000734 (Opinion and Order entered Mar. 14, 2019); Jefferson v. UGI Utils., Inc., Docket No. Z-00269892 (Opinion and Order entered Dec. 26, 1995); 66 Pa.C.S. § 332(f); 52 Pa. Code § 5.245(a).

The Complainant failed to appear for the hearing despite receiving notice and despite the undersigned allowing additional time for the Complainant to appear. To date, there has been no communication with the Office of Administrative Law Judge or me by, or on behalf of, the Complainant explaining why the Complainant's failure to appear at the hearing was unavoidable. Consequently, I find the Complainant waived the opportunity to participate in a hearing on the matters raised in the Complaint, the Complainant's absence was not unavoidable, and the Complaint should be dismissed.

As the proponent of any request for relief, the Complainant bears the burden of proof. By failing to participate and proffer any evidence to support the Complaint, the Complainant has failed to meet this burden. Thus, it is appropriate to dismiss the Complaint. Brown v. PECO Energy Co., Docket No. C-2019-3009486 (Opinion and Order entered Apr. 22, 2022); Williams v. PECO Energy Co., Docket No. C-2018-300734 (Opinion and Order entered Mar. 14, 2019) (citing Jefferson v. UGI Utils., Inc., Docket No. Z-00269892 (Opinion and Order entered Dec. 26, 1995)).

Accordingly, the Respondent's motion to dismiss will be granted.

6. The Complainant's due process rights have been fully protected and Complainant's failure to appear was not unavoidable. Schneider v. Pa. Pub. Util. Comm'n, 479 A.2d 10 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1984); 66 Pa.C.S. § 332(f); 52 Pa. Code § 5.245(a).

7. As the party seeking relief, the Complainant bears the burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence. 66 Pa.C.S. § 332(a); Se-Ling Hosiery v. Margulies, 70 A.2d 854 (Pa. 1950).

8. By failing to participate in the hearing and proffer any evidence to support the complaint, the Complainant has failed to meet the burden of proof. 66 Pa.C.S. § 332(a).
