Re: Shane Tracy v. Duquesne Light Company
Docket No. C-2024-3052319

Dear Judge DeVoe:

Today, Duquesne Light Company (“Duquesne Light” or “Company”) filed a Motion for Continuance in this proceeding, which requested that the hearing scheduled for March 11, 2025, be continued in light of outstanding discovery requests served upon Shane Tracy (“Complainant”) and the uncertainty of whether the Complainant is represented by counsel.

This case involves the factual dispute of whether the Complainant and/or Panther Pitt Oakland LLC are responsible for outstanding balances from prior accounts and whether fraudulent activity has occurred related to certain of those accounts. The Company has propounded discovery on the Complainant in order to investigate these issues but to date those requests remain unanswered.

Pursuant to the Prehearing Order dated January 22, 2025, hearing exhibits are due to be served today in this proceeding. Given the pending Motion for Continuance and outstanding discovery requests, Duquesne Light respectfully requests permission to delay service of its hearing exhibits until those pending matters are resolved. Doing so would protect personally identifiable information from being disclosed to unauthorized individuals or entities.

Copies have been provided as indicated on the Certificate of Service.

The Honorable Emily I. DeVoe
