ORDER
ADMITTING LATE FILED EXHIBIT
AND CLOSING THE RECORD

On January 16, 2025, an evidentiary hearing was held in the above captioned matter. Both parties participated in the hearing and presented evidence on the issues raised. The evidentiary record was not closed at the conclusion of the hearing.

During the hearing, Mr. Briner requested and was permitted the opportunity to submit late-filed exhibits. Mr. Briner indicated that he intended on having an electrical inspection performed of the appliances in his home, and that he would submit the results as late-filed exhibits.

On January 21, 2025, the Commission issued my Post Hearing Order, which gave Mr. Briner until February 13, 2025, to submit the late-filed exhibits and PPL until March 6, 2025, to object to the admission of the late-filed exhibits.

On February 8, 2025, Mr. Briner submitted the late-filed exhibits. PPL did not file an objection to the late-filed exhibits.

The late-filed exhibits submitted by Mr. Briner contain four exhibits marked and identified as follows.
