COMPLAINANT'S ANSWER TO NEW MATTER

1. Admitted
2. Admitted
3. Admitted
4. Denied. Bankruptcy Court only has jurisdiction regarding pre-petition debt only. Post Petition debt is handled like any other debt from any other individual.
5. Admitted
6. Admitted
7. Denied. The Public Utility Commission does have jurisdiction of post-petition debt as if it would any other citizen in Pennsylvania.
8. Denied. The Public Utility Commission must enforce a stay due to the case involving an appeal regarding a previous Public Utility Commission decision.
9. Admitted. However the Commonwealth Court has jurisdiction over appeals involving state agencies which includes the Public Utility Commission. The matter in question is involving an appeal regarding a previous Public Utility Commission decision.

Therefore the Complainant requests the court to hear this matter.
