Petitioner (Pro Se)

v.

C-2024-3045577

PPL Electric Utilities Corporation

RESPONSE TO INTERIM ORDER

Pursuant to the Interim Order by Administrative Law Judge Erin L. Gannon dated April 28, 2025 I petition herewith to withdraw my Formal Complaint dated January 19, 2024. In that Complaint I asked to use the same two currently existing PPL poles on my lawn to reconnect electrical wires to my house after relocating the smart meter to the farthest end of my property line. My request was denied. So I trenched the wiring underground at the additional cost of $8,442.

But more precisely I withdraw my Formal Complaint because I want nothing to do with PUC bureaucrats and attorneys any longer. Their callous disregard for customers suffering from smart meter radiation, forced to live without electricity, or spending thousands of dollars to abate microwave radiation intensities and protect their health is inexcusable and repugnant. No less indefensible is PUC's rejection of the massive and overwhelming numbers of scientific studies validating these victims' claims and their physician reports of adverse health effects. PUC officials and lawyers have betrayed public trust and their oaths of office since the flood of Formal Complaints began 15 years ago.

I have nothing but disgust for the wrongdoings and malfeasance of the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission. Do not contact me again.
